Will Burden of Taxation Shift?

WHO IS THIS COMMUTER? We don't know his name, but there are $8.75 in prizes waiting for him at any of The Sun's Business Offices. Each week a $5 cash prize and a year's subscription to The Sun are given to The Sun's Lucky Commuter. —Sun photo by Dave Ogden.

Here's The Sun's 'Lucky Commuter'

This gentleman stepping toward a Greyhound bus and looking toward the camera is the winner of $8.75 in prizes offered by The Sun.

Each week The Sun prints a picture of a commuter and if this person appears at any of The Sun's business offices he will be given a check for $5 and a year's free subscription to The Sun.

Here is a total of $8.75 in prizes just for being a reader of The Sun.

Transit District Continues Exclusion Hearings to Aug.

Directors of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District have continued to August 12 a public hearing on the exclusion of most of Contra Costa County from the district.

Purpose of the adjournment was to allow time for the filing of additional petitions requesting exclusion of small, isolated pocket areas of the district in western Contra Costa County.

ALL OF the petitions will be taken up for decision at the August hearing.

The requests, if granted, would bring district boundaries into line with a special service zone recently established by the board as the area in which the district will begin initial operations.

This zone includes most of Alameda County that is in the district, together with El Cerrito and Kensington in Contra Costa County.

EXCLUDED FROM the district would be the cities of Walnut Creek and Concord, and 190 square miles of unincorporated area in Central Contra Costa County and adjacent to the cities of Richmond and San Pablo.

A court order already has removed Richmond and San Pablo from the district because of a technicality involving the canvass of absentee ballots at the time the district was created.

Representatives of the Contra Costa County board of supervisors and the Walnut Creek and Concord city councils, which requested the exclusion, testified at the public hearing that citizens of their areas desire out of the district.

SUPERVISOR Thomas J. Coll of Concord declared:

"The people in the area are all anxious to be excluded."

Transit Director William H. Coburn then asked why it was that more than 40 per cent of the voters in Central Contra Costa County favored last November's $16,900,000 transit bond proposal, especially when people "commonly detest bond issues."

"There is considerable disatisfaction with existing private transportation service," answered Douglas R. Page, Walnut Creek city councilman. "There are some people who would vote for any improvement."

PAGE EXPLAINED that what his city needs is a major trunk rail line as contemplated by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District —not local and feeder lines as had been proposed by the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

The two-county district also had proposed improvements over present Greyhound interurban service between the central county area and Oakland and San Francisco.

"There will be plenty of time for feeder service later after the trunk rail line is established," Page said.

Robert K. Barber, transit board president, observed that the basic issue was one over who is to assume the responsibility of providing Contra Costa County residents with transit.

"WITHIN A few years an estimated 300,000 people will be living in the Concord-Walnut Creek area," Barber said. "The lack of transit already is a problem in your area, and will become a greater one.

"This district was formed by the people to solve their transit problems," Barber added. "Before we relinquish this responsibility, we want to be assured you will assume the responsibility."

"There's no question about it," Supervisor Coll answered. "It will be up to us (the board of supervisors) to provide transit service one way or another."

COUNCILMAN Page said his city has no plans, but that Walnut Creek city councilmen, "as community leaders, are willing to assume that responsibility."

Other representatives pressing for exclusion included Kenneth Forsman of the Lafayette Improvement Association; Thomas F. McBride, Concord city attorney; Supervisor James P. Kenny, and Harry L. Morrison, executive secretary of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association.

School Districts Urged To Construct Sidewalks

School districts of Contra Costa County today were urged to set an example for neighboring property owners by installing curbs and sidewalks on school property fronting on public roads to help protect pedestrian students.

Mrs. Norman L. Hawkins of Lafayette, chairman of the Contra Costa County Student Protection Committee, said the governing board of Mt. Diablo Unified District has already pledged full cooperation.

THE GOVERNING BOARD is on record "supporting this plan for protection of children going to and from school" and affirming that the district will "provide such facilities as funds will permit."

A committee letter to school districts cites an opinion of the district attorney which empowers the districts to construct curbs, gutters and sidewalks.

The committee was appointed by the Board of Supervisors last year to cope with the problem of complaints from parents that children are exposed to hazardous conditions in walking along county roadways to and from school. Curtailment of school bus service in some areas accentuated the problem.

"ON ALMOST ALL new county roads, curbs, gutters and sidewalks must be installed by the developer under the terms of the County Subdivision Ordinance," the letter continues. "The need we face is primarily on existing roads which were built prior to the adoption of that ordinance.

"The development of these safety features along school property will materially improve the protection offered students at the school site and in many situations will provide additional benefits in better drainage. The school district leadership here will also go a long way toward stimulating the local property owners to respond to the problem constructively."

Gill's Resignation Asked By East County Fire Board

Gerould L. Gill, long time fire chief of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District, was replaced Monday night by Al Baitx of Moraga.

Gill, who also had been a commissioner of the district for many years, was replaced recently by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

THE BOARD named Baitx after debating whether Gill's son, Don, should be named chief. Baitx has served as assistant chief of the district for the past five years.

Lee Higgins of Antioch asked for Gill's resignation after Forrest Engelhart assumed Gill's seat on the board.

Gill's son was named to act as assistant chief of the district on a temporary basis by the board.

"No man has done more for Contra Costa County than Gerry Gill," Higgins said, "but when politics says you go out, you go out."

Gill was investigated by the county grand jury in April concerning payment by the county of salaries to Gill's wife and sons for services as fire dispatcher and fireman, and payment of telephone bills for a number serving both the first district and Gill's Marsh Creek resort.

The jury criticized him for "some instances of exercising of poor discretion" in the matter, but said no criminal charges were warranted.

Higgins said the criticism was based on politics.

Gill replied he had hoped to hold off his resignation until "after we got some changes ironed out. I'm hurt about it naturally," he said. "The whole thing's unfair."

He had served as chief of the 214-square mile district since it was organized 13 years ago, and for 12 years before that under the county. The district, by far the largest in the county, extends from farm areas south of Antioch to the Alameda County line near Moraga.

The investigations of the grand jury were spurred by a series of articles in The Sun concerning the operation of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District.

THE SUN disclosed that classified advertising listings in the Contra Costa telephone directory for Gill's Marsh Creek Lodge had been paid by the fire district with tax money.

The commissioners named Baitx, 50, as chief after a group of Moraga volunteer firemen told the board they would quit if Gill's son were appointed over him. Baitx has been a fireman for nine years.

The assistant chief's job was ffered to Donald Gill after Higgins noted his knowledge of terrain and fire trails in the Marsh Creek area was invaluable to the district.

THE BOARD, notified by Sheriff Walter A. Young that the district can move two trucks from quarters at Gill's resort to the county jail farm at Marsh Creek, ppointed Gerould Gill a technical advisor to obtain cost estimates for the new shelter.

In a reorganization, Frank Arata, Antioch rancher, was named to succeed Gill as board chairman, and Howard Wiedamann of San Ramon was elected vice chairman.

Arata was appointed to the board by Supervisor Chairman W. G. Buchanan while Widemann is an appointee of Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen.

Korean Orphans' Needs Described To Rotary Club

The plight of Korean orphans was described to Orinda Rotary Club members at the group's regular meeting held Wednesday at the Willows.

The speaker was the Rev. Ivan Whipple, director of the Baptist Home Missions for the 11 Western states. The program was arranged by Joe Longacre.

THE NEED to establish more orphanages for Korean homeless children was pointed out by Dr. Whipple.

The minister also declared that slums in Korea are getting ahead of new construction and compared this with conditions in the United States.

NEXT WEEK'S speaker will be Ralph Hall, of the University of California, and a member of the local Rotary Club.

The club meets every Wednesday at 12 noon at the Willows.

Sleepy Hollow Pool Team Wins Over Antioch

Supervisors Pass Law; Peddler Crackdown On

A "Get Tough" peddler ordinance will go into effect in Contra Costa County July 27.

The ordinance, long sought after by residents of the unincorporated area as a protection against peddlers, canvassers, solicitors, and "suede shoe" salesmen, was passed unanimously by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors June 30.

ANY PERSON found violating the provisions of the ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to $500 fine and/or six months imprisonment.

By definition, a solicitor, peddler or canvasser is any person traveling from place to place for the purpose of taking or attempting to take orders, subscriptions or contracts for the sale of goods, wares, merchandise or services for present or future delivery.

The definition also includes persons offering goods from a fixed place of business which goods are sold during a limited period of time or seasonally or a person who solicits funds for any charitable, fraternal, veteran or religious organization.

THIS ordinance shall not apply to:

Persons soliciting orders from or selling to retail dealers for resale or to manufacturers for processing, or public agencies, or a charitable, veterans, fraternal or religious organization having a permanent office in the County of Contra Costa for a period of one year immediately preceding the act of sale or solicitation.

The ordinance does not apply to persons regulated and required to be licensed by the State of California or any agency thereof, which such persons are actually engaged in the activity for which such license is required.

Application for the permit required shall be by an application under oath in writing on a form to be provided by the Sheriff of Contra Costa County, which shall give the following information and material:

NAME AND description of the applicant.

Permanent home and local address of applicant.

Brief description of the nature of the business and the goods to be sold, or the purpose of solicitation of funds.

If applicant is the employee of another, the name and address of employer.

If applicant proposes the solicitation of funds for any charitable, fraternal, veterans or religious organiation, the name and address of the organization.

TWO photographs, two inches by one inch in size, or similar, of the head and shoulders of the applicant; and right thumbprint.

Letter of recommendation from three reputable citizens of Contra Costa County, attesting to the good character of the applicant.

A statement of the arrest record of applicant, if any.

The new ordinance also calls for a cash fee.

The fees for a one-year license to peddle in the county will now cost $250 and a six-months license costs $150.

VETERANS OF THE armed services are exempt from the fees, but they must meet the other conditions of the peddler ordinance.

Another relief to residents is that the hours of solicitation are now limited. These hours, according to the new law, are from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday. Any other hours times are prohibited.

Southern Pacific Drops Suits Vs. County for Taxes

Southern Pacific announced today that it is dropping the suits it had filed in Contra Costa counties for refund of a portion of its 1958-1959 property taxes.

Similar suits filed by the Santa Fe, Western Pacific and Union Pacific Railroads are also being dismissed.

GEORGE L. BULAND, vice president and general counsel for SP, said the railroads are dismissing these suits "because of our confidence that the state board of equalization will proceed fairly with respect to our assessments under the law as now clarified by the Coolidge Bill to improve equalization machinery."

That bill, recently passed by the Legislature and just signed by Governor Brown, was sponssored by the joint legislative interim committee on assessment practices, headed by Assemblyman Glenn E. Coolidge, and with Senator George Miller, Jr., as vice-chairman.

"While railroad property is still assessed at materially higher ratios to market value than is locally - assessed property," Buland said, "we are hopeful that the board of equalization, with the means now provided by the Coolidge Bill, will continue its newly adopted and commendable policy of working toward the gradual elimination of this discrimination."

THE SUITS filed earlier this year by the rail carriers asked the return of 52.6 per cent of their 1958-1959 property taxes on grounds that railroads were taxed at twice the ratio of market value applicable to other property owners. The railroads argued that this violated constitutional provisions calling for equality of treatment.

"We feel it is better to accept the administrative and legislative solution now reached than prosecute our suits, which might lead to serious dislocations of county and city finances," Buland commented.

"By their efforts to find a solution to this problem, the board of equalization, the legislature, and the governor have taken an understanding step toward the principle of equality of treatment for all taxpayers," he concluded.

Newspapers Will Compete at Fair

Newspapers, magazines, radio and television stations throughout California will be offered a chance to compete for awards of excellence in their fields at the California State Fair and Exposition's 1959 Press-Radio-TV Awards contest.

Governor Edmund G. Brown has been invited to present the winning Gold State Fair Medals to participants at the 7th Annual Press-Radio-TV banquet on September 5 in Governor's Hall.

DEADLINE for entries is August 3. Winners will be announced late in August before the opening of the Fair, which will run September 2-13 in Sacramento.

In the press competition, gold medals and trophy awards will be presented for the best news, feature, public service or series published during the year. Awards will be made in five separate divisions.

THE FIVE divisions: metropolitan daily newspaper, 50,000 circulation or more; non-metropolitan daily newspaper; weekly newspapers; magazines; and special interest or trade journals.

Radio and television station awards will be presented in three divisions designed especially for their industry.

Hottest Day Hit; Mercury to 105, But Cools to 48

Homes, Small Business May Pick Up Tax Shift

By BOB RAPIDA

A law, which may shift the burden of taxation from utilities and industry to the small businessman and the home owner, according to state assessors, has been signed by the governor.

AB-2674, authored by Glen E. Coolidge, (R) Felton, Santa Cruz County, and supported by Contra Costa's Senator George Miller, Jr., (D) Martinez and Assemblyman S. C. Masterson, (D) El Sobrante, drew the ire of Assemblyman Jerome Waldie, (D) Antioch, this week.

THE COOLIDGE bill, according to Contra Costa Assessor C. L. Dunklee will open the door to utilities and industry so they may seek relief from taxation. Industry, utilities and homeowners will be taxed on the same formula in the future, and thusly the homeowner will pick up a larger share of the tax bill, Dunklee expained to The Sun.

Waldie lashed out at the bill paraphrasing the statements of Assemblyman Lloyd W. Lowrey, (D) Yolo, that it was "strictly a PG&E bill and the dropping of suits by the railroads against the counties was in effect, a bribe of the legislature."

LOWREY'S statements were made on the floor of the assembly during the hearings leading to the signing of the Coolidge bill.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company issued a 'No comment' statement on Lowrey's remarks o The Sun. Dunklee said he represented the California Association of Assessors in the fight against the bill in Sacramento.

John W. Lynch, vice chairman of the state board of equalization argued against two sections of the bill in particular. He said:

"I believe that with sections 1818 and 1819 still in Assembly Bill 2674 as passed and signed that the door will be open for suits in regard to both intercounty and intracounty equalization.

"In future years, it is my firm conviction that these sections will become as onerous to county Board of Supervisors and to the members of the State Legislature as Chapter 1466 has become in the past decade. The County Supervisors Association of California, I am afraid, was badly misinformed on the effects of this legislation.

"I was one of those strenuously working in attempting to have these two sections removed before the final passage of the bill.

"HOWEVER, when the bill was placed on the Governor's desk for signature, I did feel that the merits of the bill outweighed these two sections, and I, therefore, urged its signing by the Governor.

"I think we must now redouble our efforts to have these two sections removed from the statutes as soon as possible."

Russell C. Horstmann, Alameda County Assessor, president of the assessors association, said the bill calls for a percentage basis for all assessments.

"The difference among the county assessors, utilities, and industry is that we compute assessments on a diferent scale.

"THE UTILITIES use a formula of historic value less depreciation, while we use a formula of historic value, plus increase, minus depreciation," the assessor asserted.

Dunklee further noted that on this basis a home which was built in 1940 is now generally worth more than it was in 1940. The present market value of the home, less depreciation is the basis for taxation.

For years, he continued, the utilities and industry have argued this point and, according to the two sections of the bill, 1818 and 1819, a set formula will be used for assessment.

At present, the Contra Costa formula for assessment is 27 per cent, but it is scaled on the historic value, plus increase, less depreciation.

"Under the law, the industries and utilities could claim they are paying up to 50 or 60 per cent of historic value, less depreciation, the new formula, and could get relief through the courts," Dunklee opined.

"OF COURSE, we don't know what will happen under the terms of the law, we don't even know how vicious these industries will be," Dunklee added.

"One thing for sure, however, if the utilities and industry do sue and win, the rest of the tax bill will have to come from elsewhere. This means higher taxes. The homeowner and small businessman will be the ones who will really suffer," the assessor argued.

Hale Champion, press secretary to Governor Brown, informed The Sun that the governor signed the bill because it had been under study by a Joint Interim Committee of the Legislature for two years and any problems in the bill can be corrected n the next session of the legislature.

The governor held a special hearing of the bill just before signing, as assessors pleaded the bill withheld until a special session of the legislature on the matter could be held next year.

HORSTMANN, Waldie, Masterson and Champion agreed there had been confusion on the bill during the Assembly Ways and Means Committee hearings.

They commented John "Bud" Collier, (R), Los Angeles, amended the bill to exclude the sections 1818 and 1819, but when the bill reached the assembly floor the following morning, the sections were still in the bill.

Collier was unable to garner the necessary votes on the floor tc have the two sections excluded from the bill.

IN BRIEF, the two sections demand that each year the board of equalization publish tabulations showing for each county the ratio of assessable tangible property.

At present the state average is some 24.5 per cent.

The assessors of the county must then show the true market value of the property and the amount it is assessed.

The tabulations are to be made so that identification of the individual properties is prevented.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC, along with several other railroads, had sued 51 of California's 58 counties for overpayment of taxes. Waldie noted that the railroads promised they would drop their suits if the bill were passed.

The suits were dismissed this week.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company paid its last quarter taxes under protest, but since that time has dropped its protest.

In a statement prepared by Robert H. Gerdes, executive vice president, the company points out it is its duty to seek lower utility rates for its consumers.

"TAXATION is a key point in rate structure, and lower taxes mean lower rates for the consumer," he stated.

No statement was made however on a rate reduction.

Meanwhile, Horstmann had an eight-page memorandum prepared for him on AB-2674 by Alameda County Assistant District Attorney Douglas R. Dunning.

The data prepared by Dunning outlines the alleged constitutional problems, the ambiguities, uncertanties and general defects of the bill.

"The main problem is whether there will be a shift in taxation. If there is, the homeowner will pay the bill," Dunklee concluded.

5-Car Crash Victim Still In Hospital

One accident victim is recovering at Kaiser Hospital and five others are home after hospitalization or emergency treatment as a result of a five-car collision which occurred last Thursday (July 10) near the Broadway Tunnel.

A westbound car driven by Eddie Washington of Oakland crossed the freeway center strip, according to Highway Patrolman Harry Schwartz. His car struck an eastbound station wagon driven by Barry Lago of 70 Haven Lane, Walnut Creek.

THEN Washington's car was struck by another eastbound car driven by Carroll B. Smith, 49, of 960 Country Lane, Walnut Creek.

Washington's car careened against a retaining fence and a car smashed into it. This car was driven by William Lubahan, 34, of Concord.

Smith's car was then hit from behind by one driven by Linda Leffe, 21, of 7 Arbor Way Lafayette.

Washington was taken to Merritt Hospital, Oakland, and is now at home recovering from internal injuries.

Miss Leffel was taken to Peralta Hospital, Oakland, and been released and is recuperating at home.

SMITH is "doing fine" at Kaiser Hospital, Walnut Creek. He suffered a fractured leg.

Lago, his father, Elmer, 43, and sister Glee, 21, were treated for minor injuries at Kaiser, then released.

Lubahan was unhurt, according to highway patrol reports.

EASTBOUND traffic was tied up for more than an hour by the multiple collision.

John Muir Hospital To Have 100 Beds If Fund Drive Goes

"A successful building fund drive can enable the hospital to start with 100 beds, substantially reducing construction and financing costs per bed," said Edmund S. Barnett, Walnut Creek attorney heading John Muir Memorial Hospital's $750,000 building fund drive, addressing members of the new hospital auxiliary. The drive begins active solicitation following a "kick-off" dinner to be held at Diablo Country Club on August 5.

Further delay in building the critically needed hospital involves rising construction and financing costs. Therefore, success in the fund drive to enable the hoped for 100-bed construction to begin this fall on the secured 10-acre Ygnacio Valley site is vital.

Contributions pledged on a three-year basis enable sizeable total donations to be paid in smaller amounts, income tax deductible over three years. Tax deductions thus make generous donations a "bargain in giving," according to hospital supporters.

"The 180,000 people of Alamo, Danville, Clayton, Concord, Lafayette, Martinez, Moraga, Orinda, Pleasant Hill and Walnut Creek can meet and even surpass the $750,000 goal, judging from success in other hospital building fund drives throughout the country," said a hospital spokesman.

Howard Sehlin, Walnut Creek banker, and treasurer of the new hospital's board of trustees, heads the finance committee. Serving with him are insuranceman Bruce Copeland, Dr. Frederick M. Hanson, and realtor Frank A. Marshall.

Campaign costs are budgeted at the nominal amount of less than three per cent of the goal. This is made possible by volunteers carrying on the drive with a campaign advisor and office manager.

Office volunteers who gave 538 hours of work through July 6 are Mesdames Roger L. Black, R. L. Curtis, H. G. DuBois, Edwin G. Robinson and L. B. Smith of Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club; Mesdames Lawrence Barker, George R. Curtis, George M. Hartwig, Fred Druse and H. Francis Sparks of Ygnacio Valley Women's Club; Mrs. Ralph Becker of Pleasant Hill Women's Club.

Misses Gail Mitchell and Gayle Holle of Las Lomas High School; Misses Peggy Hansen and Judy Nelson of Acalanes High School.

Mesdames William B. Cox, R. W. Curtis, Ralph Dora, Royal Doty, Robert Fairfield, Louis Fambrini, R. T. Hackett, T. A. Jacob, Carl Knecht, N. H. McKay Jr., Alice Osmundsen, Lester A. Pimley, E. F. Schimbor, John R. Spatta, John Strong, Albert A. Valcke, Carl Vendt, Melvin West and George Windle of Walnut Creek.

Mesdames Albert L. Jamison and Bruce Lee of Concord; Mrs. Eldo Ewert of Lafayette; Mesdames Lawrence Davitt and Gordon Van Ness of Alamo; and Mrs. Gorrill Butler of Pleasant Hill.

Sleepy Hollow Committee Compares Tax Structures

The Committee for Incorporation of Sleepy Hollow has mailed its first "Information Sheet" to residents of the area.

In the sheet, a committee headed by Fred Rust lists tax rates of other suburban communities in the Bay Area.

MEANWHILE, since the group first announced its intention to incorporation, the original committee of four men has been expanded to 18. Others are expected to join, according to Rust.

The complete committee, as of last Monday, includes Rust, Don Anderson, Cecil Cantrill, Dr. R. W. Case, Dr. Henry Fastabend, Thomas Ferguson, Paul Gregg, Leslie Grubin, Thomas Howard, Carl Huff, Richard Leland, Robert Moore, Louis Parce, Dwight Skaggs, Dr. Francis Schnugg, Carl Schroeder, Dr. James Seaman and De Loss Winkler.

COMPARISON of tax rates as shown by the committee is as follows. Figures indicate Tax Rate and Annual Tax Bill on $5000 Assessed Value*

Monte Sereno 15 cents, $7.50;
Cupertino 20 cents, 10.00;
Los Altos 23.5 cents, 11.65;
Los Altos Hills 25 cents, 12.50;
Woodside 10 cents, 5.00.

*NOTE: Assessed value, not market value. Your last tax bill shows your assessed value.

The committee says Monte Sereno most nearly resembles Sleepy Hollow because "it has a comparable population, it is 100 per cent residential and many of its streets are dead ends."

The average assessed value of Monte Sereno is somewhat lower than Sleepy Hollow, the committee stated.

Monte Sereno and Sleepy Hollow street mileage is equivalent, the group stated.

IN REPLY to its own question, "Where does Monte Sereno's money come from?", the committee issued the following breakdown:

From the state, (city's shares of gas and auto taxes), 69%; from business licenses, 10%; (here the committee noted, however, that there are no businesses in Monte Sereno); from franchises (PG&E, etc.), 6%; from fines and forfeitures, 2.5%; from miscellaneous, 2.5% and from property taxes, 10%.

The committee said Monte Sereno's money goes out for the following expenditures:

Road repairs, 31.5%; road improvement, 23%; office salaries and expenses, 15%; police protection, 10%; city attorney, 7%; insurance and bonding, 1%; all others, 12.5%.

OTHER FACTS sent out by the incorporation committee include the statement that should Sleepy Hollow incorporate, Contra Costa would be obligated to maintain police and road services at the present level until the end of the fiscal year, which is July 1, 1960.

Schools, sewers, fire protection are in special districts and will not be affected by incorporation, the committee pointed out.

Post Office Shows 365% Growth in Past 10 Years

Indicative of the growth in this area is the increase in business represented in the fiscal year figures for the Orinda Post Office.

Ten years ago the gross receipts for the office were $27,500.

During fiscal year 1959 receipts from the sale of stamps and related revenue totaled $128,000, an increase of 365 per cent in 10 years.

Robert Ross, 167 Camino Pablo, was recently appointed to the position of superintendent of mail.

Ross has been on the rolls of the Orinda Post Office since 1951 as a clerk and this appointment represents a promotion to a supervisory position.

The staff of the Orinda Post Office now includes 12 city carriers and 11 clerks including part-time help.

Approximately 4000 families are now being served and the greatest growth in new homes to be served during the past year has been in the area adjacent to Miramonte High School.

550 Boys Played 172 Games In Orinda Baseball Play

The Orinda Baseball League season has completed its most successful season during which 172 games were played.

More than 550 boys and 50 fathers participated in 36 team play.

Waldie Drug Bill Signed; Judges Get Pay Increases

The signing of a bill increasing the penalty of anyone unlawfully furnishing any hypnotic or dangerous drug to a minor was announced today by Governor Edmund G. Brown.

The measure, AB 2129 (Assemblyman Jerome R. Waldie (D), Antioch) increases the penality for anyone found guilty of the offense from a misdemeanor to a felony. The bill was passed unanimously by both the Assembly and the Senate.

IT IS SPECIFIED that nothing in the bill shall apply to a registered pharmacist furnishing drugs pursuant to a prescription.

Governor Brown has signed into law a bill affecting unemployment and disability insurance benefits.

The bill was AB 174 (Assemblymen Phillip Burton (D), El Sobrante, and Waldie.)

It provides for unemployment and disability insurance coverage of employees of a political subdivision or instrumentality of the State upon petition by a majority of the affected employees.

THE BILL is not applicable to employees of the State of any of its departments or units. It retains the authority of the governing body of the agency affected to determine if its financial situation and policy will permit coverage.

Governor signed into law a bill increasing the salaries of the State's judges, the attorney general and the legislative counsel.

The bill is SB 679 (Senator George Miller Jr., Martinez.) It takes effect January 1, 1960.

The bill increases annual salaries of the chief justice of the State Supreme Court from $24,000 to $28,000 and of the associate justices from $23,000 to $26,000.

IT RAISES the annual salaries of the presiding justices of the Appellate Court from $22,000 to $24,000 and of justices from $21,500 to $24,000.

Superior Court judges in Contra Costa will go from $18,000 to $20,000.

The bill changes the system of of computing salaries of Municipal Court judges by relating them to the salary of the chief justice of the Supreme Court rather than those of Superior Court judges.

Municipal judges in cities of Contra Costa will go from $13,000 to $16,000.

The salary of the attorney general will be raised from $23,000 to $26,000 annually, and that of the legislative counsel will go from $19,000 to $21,000.

OTHER BILLS signed into law authorized by Contra Costa legislators include:

AB 2533 Waldie, and Masterson increases pay of Contra Costa County Superior Court reporters.

SB 669 (Senator Miller) provides a formula for apportionment between state and local governments for repair and restoration of public works damaged by storms and floods; provides for loans to local government to pay for improvements.

AB 2164 (Waldie) gives adopted or acknowledged children same status under inheritance and gift tax laws as natural children.

AB 2059 (Masterson and Waldie) extends from 50 to 60 years the maximum term for leases of small boat harbor projects. An urgency measure, effective immediately.

AB 2574 (Waldie and Masterson) clarifies amount of retirement allowance to be paid county employees who were members of the county retirement system at the time it was integrated with the Federal system and who were not fully insured for old-age payments under the Federal system at time of their retirement.

SB 1455 (Miller) requires the Highway Patrol to adopt regulations for loading and securing of metal and metal products which are transported on public highways.

SB 513 (Miller) provides that the governor shall appoint, as an exempt position, the chief of the bureau of furniture and bedding inspection to serve at his pleasure. Appointment is now by director of department of professional and vocational standards.

Area Men, Boys Rescued After Skiff Capsizes

Two doctors and two boys were rescued when their 15-foot sailing skiff capsized in Richmond Harbor last Sunday.

The rescue was the first to be made by the new harbor patrol boat of the Richmond Police Department.

THE DOCTORS are Dr. Richard Lininger, 35, of 7 Santa Maria Road, Orinda, and Dr. Harvey Powelson, 38, of Warren Road, Walnut Creek.

Also aboard were Bruce Powelson, 9, son of Dr. Powelson, and a friend, Eric Metzgar, 6, of Lafayette.

The four were sailing in the harbor when a sudden breeze knocked over the craft.

Nevada Lodge Opens New Show At Lake Tahoe

Chris Ibanez, the sensational young pianist from France with the "Garner Touch," opened this week in the luxurious Theater-Bar at the beautiful Nevada Lodge, entertainment center of the scenic North Shore of Lake Tahoe.

Starring in the fabulous new Nevada Room of the Nevada Lodge, the newest supper club at Lake Tahoe, is Ruth Wallis. Ruth, billed as America's No. 1 Singer of Saucy Songs, is well known among Northern California sophisticates as a topflight entertainer in many moods from the saucy to the comic.

The glamorous new Nevada Room of the Nevada Lodge also stars the famed Ja Da Quartet and Dr. Giovanni.

Name entertainment in the new Nevada Room will be continuous from nine p.m. to three a.m. every night except Monday. At least three complete shows will be presented nightly.

Decorated in a subdued Western motif, the candle-lit Nevada Room, seating 180 people, is designed to enhance and focus attention to the entertainment on stage. It is destined to become one of the finest places to dine in the Lake Tahoe area.

Also featured in the Theater-Bar of the Nevada Lodge now are the vastly entertaining Make-Believes, new fast-rising combo and the ever popular Jan Blakeley Trio.

Lady Spots Dead Body in Rear of Station Wagon

When a lady reports to the sheriff's office that she and her son saw a dead body in the back of a station wagon, Contra Costa law enforcement agencies swing into action.

The highway patrol was notified. The very attentive mother made things even easier for peace officers to find the car by remembering the license number.

After a search by the lawmen, the station wagon was stopped near the Orinda Interchange and the "dead body" turned out to be a floor cleaner wrapped up in a rug.

Jensen Painting Awarded Prize

"Sea Spray," a painting by Orinda artist Robert Jensen, won third prize in the water-color landscape division of the Alameda County Fair art exhibit recently.

Free Firewood Still Available

There is still plenty of free firewood to be had in the area behind Happy Valley Inn, according to C. R. Johnston, secretary of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce.

The site was used for the recent Beautification Carnival sponsored by the chamber.

Those who want firewood must bring their own power equipment to saw it, Johnston said.

Duplicate Bridge Finds New Place in Community

By ROD ERNST
AT 3-8569

Are you a bad card holder? If things happen to you, then you're the person I'm looking for. Wouldn't you like to play a game of bridge where you could win no matter what cards you held?

Well, you can! Ever heard of Duplicate Bridge?

DUPLICATE bridge is a fascinating game: Almost 100,000 people in this country are now playing.

In the coming weeks, I hope to tell you a little about the game and also present some interesting sidelights as it is now being played in Contra Costa County.

Last weekend was a big one for expert and novice alike, as the Oakland sectional championships were held at the Hotel Leamington. No matter where you went in the hotel all you heard were bridge players discussing hands, i.e., "If I had only led a spade," "but how could I know you had a singleon," etc., etc.

Contra Costa players made a very creditable showing. In the major championships, Lafayette's two life masters almost swept the field competing against players from all over northern California.

Bob Adams, certainly one of the finer competitors on the west coast, won the mixed pairs and masters pairs and if that wasn't enough, he also finished fourth overall in the two session open pairs championship.

Yours truly, also of Lafayette, paired with a soon-to-be life master, young, 21 year old Peter Rank, also of Lafayette came in second in the masters pairs and tied for first in the team-of-four event.

Among the winners in the secondary championships were Mrs. Don White, Danville; Mrs. W. E. Mullins, Don Ingham and Bedson Juett all from Concord; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolff, Robert Houghwout, Kenneth Powlesland, all Walnut Creek.

WINNERS IN the junior championships included Richard Maloney and Lloyd Anderson of Lafayette; Edith Fitzpatrick of Orinda; and John Kasabian, Pleasant Hill.

All in all there was enough bridge for everybody, 18 sessions over a four day span, embracing 724 tables. Prizes or trophies were awarded all winners.

WHERE YOU CAN PLAY

Walnut Creek recreation center, Tuesday evenings, 8 p.m.; Happy Valley Bridge Club, Happy Valley Inn, Lafayette, Thursday evenings, 8; Danville Bridge Club, Charlotte Woods School, Danville, Mondays, 7:55 p.m.

Rod's revokes..

CARLO, THE CLOWN, will be at the Broadway Fun Fair with his many magic tricks and fancy balloons. At a part of the Fun Fair proceedings, free cotton candy, popcorn and balloons will be given away.

Two Dramateurs Groups Rehearsing at Town Hall

The Dramateurs are currently rehearsing for the production of Samuel Taylor's The Happy Time, the action of which takes place in Ottawa, Canada, in the early twenties.

This French-Canadian play is under the able direction of Carl Rasmussen, assisted by Katie Genesy, Pete Morrissey, Michael Spencer and Wiifred Scortt.

The Happy Time will be presented at Town Hall, Lafayette.

APPEARING in the cast are Philip Stearns, Rosemary McGough, Bert Miller, Kitty Winkworth, Ethel Appel, Alan Axelson, Dominic Scortt, Gene Ledbetter, Michael Spencer, Tony Woolf, Dan Green and John Veltri.

A second Dramateurs company is hard at work rehearsing The Winslow Boy, by Terrence Rattigan. It is scheduled for early September, after the run of The Happy Time.

The Happy Time opens Friday, August 7 and will run for four consecutive weekends.

Tickets and reservations are now available in Berkeley at Hink's book department, Peg Stanislawsky, TH 5-1100 and in Orinda, Clarence Betz, CL 4-4141.

Irish Setter Club Trials

The Irish Setter Club of the Pacific will hold its fourteenth annual Specialty Show and Obedience Trial tomorrow, July 18, on the Letterman Army Hospital grounds in the Presidio, San Francisco.

It will be held under the American Kennel Club rules and regulations. Judging all confirmation classes will be Gordon M. Parham of Salem, Oregon. Albert Wahl of Lafayette will judge the ovedience classes.

Obedience Chairman Ned Kerr of Concord and Rollie Mann of Napa, chairman of the confirmation classes, expect a good entry and to those people who have never attended such a show, feel that they will find it most instructive and interesting.

Mrs. Street Dies, Resident Here For 25 Years

Last rites were held yesterday for Mrs. Luca J. Steet of 1000 Dolores Drive who died Monday. She was 72.

Mrs. Steet lived here for the past 25 years. She was a member of American Legion Post 517 Auxiliary.

Mrs. Steet is survived by her husband, Bert, and a daughter, Betty Jean Steet of Lafayette.

She is also survived by a sister, Emerald Rhoades of Fortuna, Cecil Rhoades of Stockton and Mrs. Flossie Tinkey of San Jose.

Western Air to Introduce New Electra Jet Planes

Most intensive program ever undertaken to introduce a new airliner to western U. S. travelers began Friday when Western Air Lines lanuched an 8500-mile demonstration tour with its new Lockheed Electra jets, Terrell C. Drinkwater, WAL president, has announced.

MORE THAN 5000 guests were invited aboard preview flights which will be operated at 12 key cities on Western's routes prior to the inaugural of regular, scheduled service.

Western first airline to fly Electra jets in the West, will begin daily service between Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Tacoma on August 1.

INTRODUCTION of the $2,500,000 jet-powered airliners, which cruise in excess of 400 mph and are capable of top speeds of over 450 mph, will reduce air travel time between principal cities on the WAL system by as much as one-third, Drinkwater disclosed.

Coordinated with the extensive introductory program, which will feature a series of civic receptions, press conferences and special Electra displays, Western will produce a full schedule of advertising, sales promotion and publicity on the new airliner. The Electra jets, now in service or on order by 16 airlines of the world, have demonstrated a versatility of performance unmatched by any other aircraft now flying, Drinkwater declared.

"With marked advantages in dependability and maneuverability—features which were designed into Electra jets through Lockheed's 'mission concept'—we expect the new aircraft to prove themselves 'tailor-made' for operation over our system, which has a primary short- and medium-range pattern," Drinkwater stated.

Western's Electra jets will be operated in 72-passenger first-class configuration, including a six-seat lounge.

Powered by four Allison D-501 jet engines driving Aeroproducts 606 turbo-propellers, the WAL Electras will have 15,000 hp at takeoff.

CAPABLE OF operating from 77 per cent of all existing airports, the power-packed airliners have a wingspan of 99 feet, are 104 feet, 6 inches long and 32 feet, 9 inches high at the tail. Designed for takeoff weight of 113,500 pounds, the Electras can carry a maximum payload of 24,000 pounds.

Engle Introduces Gold Mining Bills

Senator Clair Engle announced today that he introduced two bills last week to aid gold miners.

The first is similar to one introduced by Senator Murray (D.-Montana) and others, and would permit the free marketing of gold. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or executive order or regulation to the contrary, this legislation would permit gold to be acquired, purchased, sold, melted or treated, held in custody, transported, or earmarked by any person or government instrumentality without penalty or restriction. The secretary of the treasury would be authorized to pay $70 per fine ounce for all gold domestically mined.

The second bill introduced by Senator Engle would confer jurisdiction on the United States Court of Claims to hear, determine and render judgment on the claim of any owner or operator of a gold mine for losses incurred under certain circumstances.

These losses were due to the closing or curtailment or prevention of operations of such mine as a result of the restrictions imposed by War Production Board Limitation Order L-208.

"I believe this whole area should be the subject matter of a thorough-going study by the congress.

"I would like to call attention to our presently dwindling gold supply and to the powerful influence that gold may exercise in any international affairs hereafter," Senator Engle said.

Men Outnumber Women in Deaths On Highways

Men over 65 years of age should be especially careful crossing the street. This is the advice of the California State Automobile Association, which reports that males and oldsters are among the most frequent victims of fatal pedestrian traffic accidents.

Persons over 65 account for one-third of all such deaths in cities, and men are involved in 7 out of 10 pedestrian fatalities, the California State Automobile Association stated. The reasons given by the AAA motorists' organization are:

Men are more aggressive than women and therefore are more apt to take more chances when crossing streets.

More men than women are on the streets at night—the greatest danger period for pedestrian accidents.

Advancing age tends to result in poorer eyesight, hearing and muscular coordination, which makes elderly people more vulnerable to traffic accidents.

The CSAA offers this advice for safer walking: If you are a man, take a tip from the ladies and be more cautious in crossing busy downtown streets. If you are over 65, make allowances for any infirmities before stepping off the curb and remember that you don't move as rapidly as you once did.

Sun want ads appear in five papers for one bargain price.

'Come to the County Fair' Cried From High and Low

All the excitement, gaiety and thrills traditionally associated with the words "County Fair" will be crowded into four fun-filled days at the Fairgrounds at Antioch, July 30 through August 2—when a Contra Costa County Fair described as "the biggest and finest, ever" is staged.

Continuous entertainment, exhibits, shows and spectacles have been scheduled throughout the fair's run by Norman D. Sundborg, the secretary-manager, to carry out the fair board's policy of providing "an interesting program for the whole family."

THE ENTERTAINMENT spotlight will center on the famed Lee Grabel Illusion Show.

The noted magician will move in a carload of illusion apparatus and scenery for free performances at the outdoor stage, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings at 8:30, and a special matinee at 3 p.m. on Sunday, August 2.

Girls will appear and disappear — a piano will even be suspended in mid-air—during the international stage and TV star's appearance.

A novel and colorful act will be on view four times daily in both the main exhibit building and exhibit tent—the Carlssons, European stars in a novelty comedy, music and juggling performance.

The Carlsson have delighted audiences from Paris's Moulin Rouge to New York's famed Palace Theatre, as well as in TV and motion picture appearances.

AFTERNOONS and evenings, on the midway, fairgoers will thrill to the Allans, acclaimed as the "world's greatest aerial performers." Stars of the troupe ride a motorcycle inside a giant revolving drum, and perform breathtaking trapeze stunts—while 100 feet above the midway crowd.

Four performances of a rip-snorting rodeo, the annual horse show, "Miss Contra Costa" beauty pageant, fireworks, dazzling parade and other events will add to the fair's excitement.

Hundreds of exhibitors are preparing to compete for blue ribbons and cash premiums totalling more than $87,000, with exhibits in 794 sections ranging from agriculture, horticulture, livestock, art and gardening to industrial exhibits.

Go to Church Sunday

Christian Science

The divine, eternal source of all like and action will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Christian Science Churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek; and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park Streets.

Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Pleasant Hill Grange, 690 Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill. The Christian Science Society of Lafayette meets at 3496 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon on "Life" is the Golden Text from John (5:26): "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself."

FROM "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read (289:32):

"Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I Am, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase.

Scriptural selections include this passage from I John (2:25): "And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal Life."

Covenant

Sunday school with classes for all age groups starts at 9:45 a.m. each Sunday morning at the Lafayette Covenant Church, 925 Moraga Road.

THE MORNING worship service begins at 11 a.m. On this coming Sunday the North Park Gospelaires will be participating in the morning service.

The Gospelaires are being heard throughout the west in a series of 68 concerts.

Next Sunday afternoon at 1:15 there will be a potluck picnic at Montclair Park at 6300 Moraga Avenue in Oakland.

Pastor Mays has returned from the annual conference in Rockford, Illinois and a vacation in the eastern states.

On June 21 he was ordained as a minister in the Evangelical Covenant Church of America. Pastor Mays will speak at the evening service on July 19 and a baptismal service will be held at that time.

ANOTHER important event of the coming week is the homecoming service with Pop and Mom Whtie. Rev. White was pastor of the Lafayette Covenant Church for several years prior to February 1957 when he began his ministry in the United Presbyterian Church in Fowler.

Friends of Rev. and Mrs. White are invited to attend the potluck fellowship planned for 7 p.m. on Wednesday at the church.

ON THURSDAY, July 23 at 10 a.m., the hearing on our land use permit before the board of supervisors will be held at the hall of records, room 210, Main and Court Streets, Martinez.

All members and friends of the church who can attend are urged to be present. Call AT 3-2193, YE 5-4118, or AT 3-3348 if transportation is needed.

Daily vacation Bible school will be opening August 17 and concluding with a program on the evening of August 22. Children from kindergarten through 8th grade are invited to attend.

Baptist

"Men Who Were Forgiven" will be the sermon topic of Rev. Alan D. Southwell at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Moraga Community Baptist Church this Sunday. Extended session for kindergarden and primary age children is provided during the worship service as well as a nursery.

Sunday school for every age starts at 9:45 a.m. with a children's story by Elsie Hunter.

Junior and senior high young people meet at 6:45 p.m. for fellowship and inspiration.

Women's yokefellow group meets at 10 a.m. Wednesday morning at the Moraga grade school for a time of sharing study and prayer. A nursery is provided.

All meetings take place in the Moraga grade school unless otherwise announced.

Congregational

"Back of the Cross—the Crucifix" will be the Rev Chauncey Blossom's sermon topic on Sunday morning at the 10 o'clock service in the Orinda Community Church.

The senior choir will sing "Alleluia, Sing to Jesus" by Benjamin Harrison.

The primary children will attend the service with their parents and be dismissed to their classes after the children's sermon.

THE FILM on the life of Christ will be shown to the junior and junior high departments in fellowship hall followed by discussion in classes.

Senior Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at the church at 7 p.m. Recreation will include a baseball game.

Christian

Rev. Howard Patrick McConnell will speak at the Lafayette Christian Church, 925 Moraga Road on the theme "Epaphroditus."

The worship service is at 8 a.m.

COUNTIES EXHIBIT

More than 90 per cent of State Fair visitors see the counties exhibit. Fair is September 2-13.

Episcopal

Services on the eighth Sunday after Trinity at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive and Las Vegas Road, Orinda, will be holy communion at 7:30 a.m., family worship at 9 a.m., and morning prayer at 10 a.m.

The Rev. William Pothier, assistant to the rector, will conduct the two later services and will deliver the sermonette at family worship and the sermon at morning prayer.

The celebrant at holy communion will be the Rev. Clarence Stacy, vicar of St. Anselm's Episcopal Church, Lafayette, who will also officiate at the mid-week service on Thursday at 10 a.m.

Family worship at 9 o'clock is a short service which children of all ages attend with their parents. At 10 o'clock the regular form of morning prayer is followed, and nursery care is available in the basement of the rectory.

The senior choir will assist the congregation with the musical portions of the later service, and will sing as an offertory anthem, "Let Us Praise Famous Men" by Ralph Vaughan Williams. The choir is directed by Richard Colvig, choirmaster and organist.

Methodist

The Lafayette Commnuity Methodist Church will hold Sunday morning worship services at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. with the Reverend Wayne H. Long preaching on the sermon topic "When the Brain Muscles In." Nursery service is provided at both services.

A BIBLE CLASS for youth and adults is held at 9:30 a.m. Church School for all ages is held at 9:30 a.m.

Sunday evening the Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at the church at 7:00 p.m. and go as a group to Trinity Methodist Church, Berkeley, to hear Don Baldwin and his World Report.

Saturday, the Second Milers will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gass as the host.

Next Sunday, July 26, will be the reception of members of the Church.

MEMBERSHIP Training Seminars will be held in September every Sunday from 5 to 6 p.m. in the Church Lounge for all prospective members of the church.

Members and friends who wish to know more about Christianity and our church are also welcome. Your questions will be discussed.

Presbterian

The Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, 49 Crest Road, Lafayette, will have Louis Peterson as guest speaker on Sunday at the 9 o'clock and 10:30 a.m. worship services.

Mr. Petersen is director of public relations of the north coastal area of California.

Church school classes for kindergarten through sixth grade will be held at 9 a.m. only, and the nursery and beginner departmnets for three year olds and younger will open at 9 and 10:30 a.m.

The Junior High Westminster Fellowship will meet at the church Sunday evening from 6 to 8 p.m., and the Westminster Campus Club will meet Sunday from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at the home of Peg Johnson, 3149 Stanley Boulevard, Lafayette, YE 5-7238.

A Bible class for women will be held on Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the fireside room with nursery available.

THE CHURCH school staff will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. This meeting is for all teachers and helpers who are working with the classes during any part of the summer.

Episcopal

On the eighth Sunday after Trinity, St. Anselm's Episcopal Church will hold services of Holy Communion at 8:30 a.m. and morning prayer and Holy Communion at 10:30 a.m.

The early service will be conducted by the Rev. Clarence Stacy at the Canterbury Chapel, 682 Michael Lane, as will the 10:30 service at the Park Theater.

CARE FOR young children is provided during the latter service. Pre-schoolers will meet at 979 First Street, and kindergarten children will gather in the insurance office of the theater. Older children will attend church with their parents.

This week only the Wednesday service of holy communion at the Canterbury Chapel will begin at 9 a.m.

Lutheran

Pastor Hidy will preach at both worship services at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, 294 Orchard Road, Orinda Sunday.

The subject will be, "God Wants You."

THERE WILL be the baptism of children at the 8 a.m. worship service. Sunday school begins at 9:30 a.m. under the leadership of Charles Ivy, with classes for all age groups. Daily vacation Bible school will be held during the week of August 24.

The Chi-Rho's, the young married couple's group will have a pot-luck dinner, devotions and recreation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Carlock, 69 Acacia, Orinda, on Friday, July 24 at 6:30 p.m.

RACE PURSES

Thoroughbred purses of $164,000 are offered at the State Fair horse races, September 2-13.

Anders Villadsen Dies Suddenly

Services were held Monday for Anders B. Villarsen, 3736 Sundale Drive, who died suddenly July 9 at his home.

A native of Denmark, Mr. Villadsen was 79.

Mr. Villadsen came to California in 1905 and for the past six years made his home in Lafayette. He was an engineer and partner in the firm of Valladsen Brothers, a San Francisco engineering firm.

Mr. Valladsen leaves his wife, Mahilda, of the Lafayette address and five daughters, Mrs. Aillene Barney, Oakland; Mrs. Vivian Ferrell of Lafayette, Mrs. Janis Andreasen of Tacoma, Mrs. Doris Mendell of Albany and Mrs. Shirley Cassinelli of Walla Walla, Washington.

Six grandchildren also survive.

The Rev. Albert Hidy of the Orinda Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church presided at the services which were held in the Chapel in the Valley Mortuary, Lafayette.

Interment was at Mountain View cemetery, Oakland.

Helen White Dies; Long Active in Community Work

Last rites will be held in Lafayette today for Mrs. Helen White of 1751 Reliez Valley Road.

Mrs. White died Tuesday, July 14, at a Berkeley hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. White leaves her husband, Stanford W. White; two daughters Mrs. Shoren H. Fenton Jr., of Lafayette; and Mrs. Robert Crabtree of San Luis Obispo.

Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Van Vleck of Kirkland, Washington and two sisters, Mrs. Louis J. Richter of Corvalis, Washington; and Mrs. M. L. Fitch of Seattle.

Also surviving are four grandchildren, Babette Ann and Terry Louise Crabtree; Shoren Fenton III; and Wendy Fenton.

Mrs. White was a native of Washington, a member of the Lafayette-Orinda Soroptimists Club, the Delphian Society of Lafayette and was active in the Lafayette Girl Scouts and the PTA. She was associated in the accounting business with her husband.

The services will be at 2 p.m. at the Chapel of the Valley Lafayette Mortuary, 985 Thompson Road, Lafayette. The Rev. William Morgan will officiate.

Inurnment is at the Chapel of the Chimes, Oakland.

A Helen White Memorial Fund has been established by friends and several local civic organizations.

Persons who wish to contribute are asked to send checks to the Helen White Memorial Fund, c/o First Western Bank, Lafayette; or to Mrs. Lavina Irwin, 3553 East View Drive, Lafayette, ATlantic 3-2123.

Dance Teachers Leave for Tour Of South Pacific

Doris and George Clifford who reside at 163 Camino Pablo in Orinda teach dancing to both the children and the adults in the Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek area, as well as all over the Bay Area.

They are the instructors for the Junior Country Cotillion in the Lafayette-Orinda area. They teach the Ed Cheney system and have been associated with Ed Cheney for seven years.

Recently the Cliffords left on a cruise on the S.S. Monterey as dance instructors and exhibitionists for the Matson company.

This will enable them to spread their Cheney teaching techniques into the South Pacific, for they go to Los Angeles, to Tahiti, to New Zealand, Australia, Samoa, and the Fiji Islands, then Hawaii and will return by August 23.

This cruise is a follow up of one they took last Christmas and New Years on the S.S. Lurline to Acapulco from San Francisco and return.

This system of dancing was written up in the February, 1959 Readers Digest in an article entitled "Look What Dancing Class Did For Me," by Robert de Roos.

This system specializes in group instruction for adult couples and is equally famous for tis junior program teaching the latest social dancing techniques in a way that is both authentic, up to the minute in latest dance vogues, yet easy and fun to learn in a social atmosphere of the highest standards where ease and poise are featured.

Anyone interested in receiving instruction this fall from the unusual Cliffords could contact them after August 23.

Diablo Organ Society Held Picnic Sunday

The Diablo Organ Society hauled numerous musical instruments to Mitchell Canyon Sunday for what was described as one of the most successful meetings of the year.

Throughout a day of picknicking, swimming, and games, members took turns playing, frequently accompanied by children with some of the percussion instruments. Further musical entertainment was provided by a trio including Steve Bird, Mel Edgar and Wes Day, playing organ, piano, trumpet, and drums.

Highlight of the children's games conducted by Mrs. Miles Deakins was a game of catch with raw eggs. In addition to game prizes, soft drinks and ice cream bars were provided throughout the afternoon.

The society meets monthly for mutual inspiration and encouragement in organ playing, frequently scheduling performances by guest artists. Next regular meeting will be held Wednesday evening, August 12, on the patio of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shay, 3405 Blackhawk Road, Lafayette. The September meeting is to be a dinner dance.

A. L. Studebaker Dies at Age 76

Services will be held tomorrow for Alonzo Lee Studebaker who died Wednesday in Castro Valley. He was 76.

Mr. Studebaker was active in real estate business in Lafayette for many years and was a member of the Lafayette Real Estate Board. He was a native of Kansas.

Mr. Studebaker was the husband of the late Marjorie Studebaker. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Rowena O'Hern of San Leandro and a grandson, Lowell H. Rood, Jr.

Services will be held at the Grant Miller Mortuary, 2850 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland, tomorrow at 11 a.m. Inurnment will be private.

John Lamberth

Army Corporal John R. Lamberth, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lamberth, 4 La Punta Road, recently participated with the 8th Division's 16th Infantry in Remembrance Day ceremonies in Etteibruck, Luxembourg.

Eager Beavers Offer Bargains To Community

The Eager Beavers are busy beavers these days building a dam with their summer sales, to bolster up your leaky budget.

Their Thrifty Shop is located at 3437 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, and is a miniature department store. Such goodie bargains.

Lovely summer suits and dresses for ladies and little girls, suits and sport jackets for men and boys. Lots of shirts.

All cleaning is done by courtesy of Gaston. Washing, ironing and pressing by sponsors. Seniors mend any garments in need of repair. Everything is put out, in spic 'n' span condition. And the prices are so right.

The baby department is a joy to prospective mommies. Infants clothing, baby scales, car bassinettes, strollers. And we have some most attractive smocks and suits "from here to maternity."

Electrical items: coffee percolator (a beauty) waffle iron, sandwich grill, hot plates, egg boiler, bathroom heater, etc. All bright and shining like new.

Lots of latex paint. Wonderful woolens for rug makers. You name it and if we do not have it, just leave your name, address and phone number and you will be notified when it comes in. We aim to please.

This is a real round-robin shop. We help you with your lit ol' budget and you help us to support the Lafayette Senior Citizens Club. That is community service with a capital S.

No Major Boundary Change To Be Asked by Committee

No major changes in the originally drawn boundaries for the proposed town of Lafayette will be recommended to the County Board of Supervisors by the incorporation committee of the Lafayette Improvement Association, according to William J. Bolce, Jr., association president.

Bolce said that other than a possible alteration of boundaries at the end of Springbrook Road (a continuation of Stanley Boulevard), the incorporation committee would stand on its original proposal when the Board of Supervisors resumes its incorporation hearings in Martinez next Tuesday.

Ted Barcelon, of the Lafayette Incorporation Boundary Committee, explained why the committee voted to adhere to its original lines despite "a great deal of pressure brought to bear on us to exclude certain large undeveloped areas."

"The committee," Barcelon declared, "feels strongly that Lafayette is predominently a residential community.

"Those properties which in future years could conceivably change this residential character, we particularly believe should by all means be included within the community boundaries and be subject to local planning."

Sue Markey Gets College Honor

Sue Markey of Lafayette was recently accorded Honors at Entrance at Lewis and Clark College. It does not carry any financial stipend and goes to approximately 15 per cent of the incoming freshman class.

Miss Markey is a graduate of Acalanes High School.

Concert Given by Mrs. Phelan At City Club

"Music in the Air" with Elizabeth Phelan of Orinda at the piano was the theme for the program following the terrace luncheon at the Berkeley Women's City Club, Wednesday.

Mrs. Phelan has performed extensively in the New York City metropolitan area, in Princeton and Trenton, New Jersey.

She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and the Institute of Musical Art of the Juilliard Foundation in New York City with a major in organ.

She continued advanced piano studies in New York with M. Gaston Dethier, Nelly Reuschel, and Loma Roberta. Mrs. Phelan taught in the piano department's of the Westminster Choir College in Princeton, and in the New Jersey College for Women, now Douglass College.

She has also held positions of organist and choir master in churches in the New York area.

Mrs. Phelan is now teaching piano and doing choir work here. She is the wife of Dr. Joseph Phelan and the mother of two boys.

A "hot" ring helps tame an old enemy

Atomic radiation helps this man do his job.

He's Dr. Hugh Macpherson, one of Standard's research engineers. The "hot" ring he's holding is an ordinary piston ring which has been exposed to atomic radiation.

By installing such radioactive piston rings in a car, our research engineers can use a Geiger counter to measure wear as it happens while the car is driven on the highway, in traffic, on hills—in every possible driving situation.

This research technique has taken months off the time needed to test the effectiveness of new motor oils, and it's far more accurate than previous methods.

It's one of the techniques pioneered by Standard's scientists to help defeat an old enemy . . . wear — to learn what it is, what causes it, how to prevent it.

Our progress has been steady. Working with car manufacturers, we've virtually ended the problem of wear in automobile engines.

In the 1930's, for example, cars could go only 20 to 40 thousand miles before a major overhaul. But with today's motor oils and regular oil changes, your engine can be good for more than 100,000 miles — can, in fact, outlast the car.

By such never-ending research that leads to better products . . . the people at Standard are planning ahead to serve you better.

Smokey Old Industry Is Answer to Prayer, Maybe

Does the thought of a smokey old forge-type industry in the back of your house make you shudder?

Does the thought of your rising tax bill give you gooseflesh?

Does the shrinking value of your take-home pay give you sleepless nights?

All of these thoughts are enough to make the average happy suburban homeowner trade in his hapy home for a housetrailer and take off for the wild blue mountains.

BUT THERE IS a lot to consider in the above questions. For instance, how do you feel about controlled manufacturing?

Yes, MANUFACTURING. We know it's a nasty word, but we've gone and said it again. Sure, fine. Put those old factories out in the sloughes and we don't mind. But DON'T put 'em in our backyards for gosh sakes.

Couple of things wrong with this, though. For one thing, many of the controlled industries are electronic or scientific by pursuit, and hence employee trained college-type people on their management rolls.

Now, how would you like to work out in the smelly old sloughes? Not much, we betcha.

FOR ANOTHER thing, light industry which is "clean" does not require a great deal of industrial land and functions best in a quiet residential atmosphere.

So next time somebody suggests controlled manufacturing in your community, think twice.

Here's another point, re: your tax bill. Industry, commercial and utility assessments paid an estimated 60 to 70 per cent of your tax bill.

This should come as no surprise, if you really think about it. On the other hand, we all get to feeling that we're carrying the whole tax load, and obviously we're not. Incidentally, this feeling usually appears about 20 seconds after ripping open the tax bill.

AN ACTUAL BREAKDOWN of the amount of tax assessment provided by utilities, industry and commercial ventures in the county is not available at present. However, tax forms are being coded so that this information will be available through IBM processing.

Another interesting point, concerning industry, manufacturing and commercial venture as they apply to our tax bills.

Whenever tax relief is considered, we usually discuss it in terms of heavy industry — Avon, Pittsburg, etc. We rarely stop to give credit to the merchant down the street.

However, he bears a heavy part of the tax load on his shoulders. At present the county is only tabulating commercial firms assessed at $20,000 or more, which means roughly an $80,000 investment. That means that there are literally thousands of small businesses that are supporting our tax base which do not show up as "relief" from our taxes on the tax bill.

IT SHOULD BE fairly obvious that it is a lot more reasonable to shop at home than it is to travel through the tunnel and shop on "the other side."

But what makes it really interesting is the dual favor you do yourself when you patronize your local merchant. You save yourself time and transportation costs, and you help support the business that is lightening your tax load.

Just food for thought next time you pay your grocery bill!

One other item. Certainly if there is any answer to our increasing tax rate, it lies in encouraging new industry and business into our county — and that doesn't just mean Pittsburg and Avon — it means right here at home.

So think about these things the next time a commercial or industrial venture is considered in your area. It may save you money.

Someone with Integrity...

We'd like to take our hats off to a local resident who did what he thought right in a certain instance and then followed through when the sledding got a little rough.

We are referring to the author of the letter to the editor which appeared in a recent issue of The Sun referring to activities of the county welfare department and certain instances of aid to recipients of county and state funds.

IN ALL FAIRNESS let it be said that County Welfare Director William Golden never demanded to know the name of the author of the lettre, whose name was withheld at his request.

However, a certain member of the County Board of Supervisors did demand to know the identity of the writer.

Our hats are off to the author of the letter for contacting the county authorities on his own and volunteering information that they wanted.

This made it considerably easier for the county to check out the facts in the cases cited, and the eventual findings were printed in a recent issue of The Sun.

BUT THE SUN did not divulge the name of the author of the letter. We will always protect our sources, and we, in turn, are protected by a state law against having to reveal any source.

It seems that some of our public officials might learn a little lesson from this affair. No newspaper has to reveal its sources, and the officials might just as well realize that right now. Threats aren't going to make any difference.

But in any event, our hat is off to the author of the letter. It was his perogative to contact the county and he did so. We commend him for his position.

The Staff Corner

It's Really Not Stealing...

By DICK OSBORN
and LINDA CARRUTH

We're plagiarizing this week!

Never thought we would stoop to stealing material from our teen-age columnists, but here we are. How the mighty have fallen!

Actually, got to thinking about the many editorials The Sun has carried re: activities for teen-agers, and lack of same. About many activities for younger-type people, but little for the high school set.

Then along comes Linda Carruth who writes a Pleasant Hill column for The Sun. Real nice-type little gal who can write circles around many of us who are more experienced than she, and who also has a penchant for thinking.

SO ALONG SHE comes this week with a column suggesting things her contemporaries might do to fill the summer hours. Read her column. Found that there were some pretty interesting suggestions in it that I might like to follow.

Got to thinking about that and decided it should be shared with all of you.

So instead of being relegated to page 48, lower dark corner, Linda and I will share the staff corner this week.

Here is her column, just as she wrote it (with a correction in spelling or two, but then, none of us is perfect) for your edification.

What to do can be the big question when that middle-of-summer lag sets in. No job, and you've been swimming? Try something new.

Volunteer. That all-important (on an application for a job) experience can be had in many fields. The local Red Cross chapter offers work in three summer programs.

Be a Red Cross junior Gray Lady. Visit rest homes and use your talents at the piano, or just listening to entertain others. Staff aids are needed for office work. Or, if water is your idea of what a perfect summer is made of, try being a water-safety aid. Mrs. Loele, volunteer chairmn, can help you at YE 5-7540.

The Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County answers other agencies needs for summer assistants. Mrs. Sholtz, YE 4-0424, has jobs for teenagers in craft and playground programs at recreation centers, office work, and clinic assistants for the county health department.

TRY GIVING THOSE extra hours to helping the handicapped in their swimming program, keeping small children too entertained to notice the prick of a polio shot, or welcoming babies to the well-baby clinic.

There are many, many things to do. How about a recording party, with a rented tape recorder bringing out the ham in everyone? Or, try painting or something; a fence, a room, a picture.

Learn to skin dive, ride a surf board, make a pizza. Browse in a book store, an art gallery, a pet shop. Plant a tree, mow a lawn, go on a picnic. Visit the post office to study the wanted posters, read something you've never had time for before.

Be a tourist, take a camera and see how many places you have missed as a "native." Tour a newspaper, talk to a private-eye; play T.V.'s favorite star, be a do-it-yourself cowboy.

Explore: the mystery under the hood of a car, the story behind the Monument, an antique store. That dream trip, try planning it, down to the last ticket stub. Become an expert on something, learn Russian by record, read the front page of a newspaper as well as the funnies.

TAKE A DOLLAR and see how far it will go in a candy store. Learn to fly, take a hike, find a pen pal. adopt a kitten. Buy a bank and fill it up. Join the Y, ride a bike, learn to drive, ride a fire engine.

Take a bus ride you've never taken before, find out about something you know nothing about. Study Yogi, Zen, Beatniks, an Ouija board. Go fishin', row a boat, take a safari to the nearest zoo. Explore an airport, play the bongos, investigate a hardware store.

And, when your through, take time to do nothing. After all, you need to rest. School will be here in 1296 hours!

We Hurry to Curry the Old Gal in the Corral

By MARIE MONAHAN

We have just come home from the mountains.

AND NOTHING will do till we hie up to the hills to see how The Horse is making out.

Well, pard, she is Fine!

She is a nice old nag we are "sitting" with for the summer. In this case, we are Paying for the privilege of Sitting.

And that's exactly what we do here most of the time. Sit!

OUR Daughter, who is a half-partner in this Horse-business would just DIE if she heard the horse referred to as an Old Nag.

Her name is Nancy. The horse, of course.

She lives up in the hills in a rented pasture. ($$$) She has a tidy little "Tack Room." With her name on the door, yet!

She is the recipient of carrot & celery handouts not to mention sugar-cubes. ($$) Which in her case, are okay. For a little extra energy.

She doesn't really NEED the energy. She is never galloped or trotted or taken out for long. She is mostly petted & talked to & curried & combed. Till the flies have flown elsewhere in disgust. They don't have a PEACEFUL minute!

Nancy is a meticulous mare. And she happens to be Twenty years old! For a horse, THAT is pretty darned old, pardner.

Our Young Lady turns BLUE if she hears such talk!

Yes, Dear, she is a perfectly wonderful horse. She will not buck or bite. And when she looks at us with those big brown eyes, well, we could stand there & curry her ALL day!

That is exactly what the two young horsey partners do. They spend HOURS tidying up the Tack Room. It is altogether different than tidying up their own rooms at home. They talk a language of their own. They scrape dirt out of the hoofs & spread out the hay. Dish up the alfalfa & dole out the vitamins. ($$$$$!)

Nancy is on a geriatric treatment. She gets a few extra vitamins to keep her going. We just hope they keep her going till the owner returns in the Fall.

Hmmmm. It does seem funny that we are PAYING to Sit!

The owner gave us a long list of phone numbers. Just like those you leave for a "baby sitter."

There is a phone for the Vet. The Shoe Man. Not to mention the dentist.

Do you suppose they call a horse dentist an Horsadontist? Anyhow, if Nancy has trouble chewing on her choppers, the Horse-Dentist will come and file her teeth. With a file about four feet long.

Why, that should be worth the price of a bale of hay. ($$$) Just to watch. For the privilege of currying & combing the horse.

But it gives the young girls a Glow, this Wonderful Experience! They are learning responsibility & waybe our young lady will discover that a horse is Too MUCH responsibility.

Then we will save money NEXT year.

That is when she's been promised Her Horse.

Right now, she's her happiest. In dusty blue jeans & smelling of Corral No. 5.

We hope Nancy lasts till September. It's not her Old Age that bothers us. It's just we COULD kill her with kindness.

Curry & comb, Comb & curry. And SIT! ($$$)

Annual Water Regatta Set For Weekend at Stockton

The Stockton Deep Water Channel will resound to the roar of high powered engines Saturday and Sunday when the Stockton Junior Chamber of Commerce presents its 33rd annual Port Stockton Water Regatta.

Two full days of inboard and outboard boat races and a water ski show are on tap for the event, according to Tom Strawn, regatta chairman.

THE HIGH speed thrills of amateur inboard racing and a pageant and competition staged by the Stockton Water Ski Club are scheduled Saturday.

Sunday will be given over entirely to racing with complete programs of events slated by the Northern California Outboard Association and the California Speed Boat Association. All the races have the official sanction of the American Power Boat Association.

The outboard events will include races both for runabouts and hydroplanes.

The runabouts are like the family-type craft that dot the water-ways, except for their modified engines, special fuels, and the racing skill of their drivers.

THE HYDROPLANES ARE strictly for competition and are designed to be virtually airborne to reduce drag. They range from the small 15 cubic inch class A craft to the class F boats which are powered by 60 cubic inch outboard engines and can attain speeds of close to 100 miles an hour.

The most recent development in hydroplanes is the cab-over design, copied from the unlimited class inboard hydroplanes, which has the driver's cockpit almost in the bow. The radical setup permits the entire craft to ride free of the water at speed except for the propeller and an narrow fin. A boat of this design recently set a new world speed record for outboard hydroplanes of 107 miles

Letters to The Editor

THANK YOU
Dear Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity on behalf of the Acalanes Union High School District, its pupils and their parents, the board of trustees, and the district staff, to express our appreciation for the fine coverage your newspapers have given to the district and its schools (Miramonte, Acalanes, Las Lomas and Del Valle) during the past year.

Neil M. Parsons,
District Superintendent

Dear Mr. Silverman,

Jut before the start of the summer I went down to your paper to place an ad for odd jobs. When I arrived I was told I could put my ad in The Sun two weeks for no charge.

The next day after the paper came out I had work scheduled for a week. This has continued for weeks and has proved very profitable.

I would like to thank you for putting my ad in your paper. You really help out a lot of kids by doing this.

SLEEPY HOLLOW
Dear Editor:

I resent the half truths and insinuations in your editorial. (re: Sleepy Hollow incorporation in last week's Orinda Sun) There is no hidden ball deal here.

This matter of incorporation in Sleepy Hollow is a subject for us to determine without any meddling or gratuitous advice from you or other residents of Orinda.

THIS WILL be determined by the democratic process of circulating petition bulletins, town hall meetings and ultimately, an election.

I cannot recollect any stand on your part, much less a front page editorial, in our fight to achieve a TEMPORARY stoppage of a four lane highway on Lombardy and Washington Lanes. Incorporation will put a permanent stop to this threat.

There is no lack of communications with the Orinda Association. We have always worked with them on Orinda problems and in most cases on subjects not having any local effect upon us. Should we wait for the millenium when all Orinda will incorporate or protect our homes now, while there is still time?

NOW AS TO your charge of potential waste and inefficiency —what would you do?—buy an article now at a lower price or wait and buy it later at a higher price? It is estimated by some that annual cost of incorporation in the Hollow will cost from 15 to 25 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Orinda incorporation would cost 50 cents to $1 per $100 assessed valuation.

The next time you write don't talk through your hat—get some facts or at least some pertinent information.

The Light Touch Helps Your Car

If you're one of the happy owners of these shiny new cars that are blossoming out on our streets and highways, the National Automobile Club advises you that you can keep your car in tip-top shape by practicing the light touch in your driving.

It's the light touch that does it. It's the light touch that will use your power to propel your car safely and serenely along the highway. But the heavy touch is another story. The heavy touch will work to wrack and strain your car's frame, clutch, transmission, differential, wheels, and tires and make your new car old long before its time.

Think about stepping down hard on that accelerator in terms of torque or the twisting power of your motor. Modern motors have a high twisting power and the car's parts are built to handle this power. But step on the accelerator too vigorously and the torque rises fast, does some wrenching damage. Step on it gently, and the torque goes up slowly with the car's parts easily absorbing the strain.

Think, too, of stepping on that accelerator in terms of what it does to your brakes. More fast starts and high speeds mean more violent braking, and it's violent braking that will wear down your linings, wear the rubber from your tires.

It's the light touch that does it.

Do Teachers Have Tough Time? Well, Read This.

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Some of us think teachers have a tough time; others believe that teachers are on the gravy train.

So several weeks ago I printed a column written by a local teacher, who pointed out some of the profession's financial and other problems. Today I received a letter from another teacher and it speaks for itself. Here it is:

Recently published in the Sun was a high school teacher's discussion on controversial subjects. I feel this column was very well presented and I would like to put in my two cents' worth. Mr. Name Withheld is a high school teacher (higher salary scale than elementary school) and single. I am an elementary teacher (name also withheld, please, if you care to print this), married and with four small children. May I present my picture?

I have been a teacher for several years, anxious to have a classroom full of eager, aspiring youngsters just waiting to learn everything they can, not only from books, but also much more from each other, from experimenting, and, I hope, from me.

I wanted to help them learn about how to live, as well as how to make a living. How to give, of themselves, utilizing their talents to their utmost, rather than how to get, quick, whatever it is they think the world owes them.

But I have a family to support and, I hope, to increase. I had never been able to teach, due to financial strain, until the year before last. Salaries were looking a little better, on paper. And teaching was everything I had hoped for, except for all the extras expected of a teacher but not considered in the pace of a teacher's life. A teacher has a life?

The headaches begin

It was soon clear to me why every teacher I know who is "head of a household" either has another job and/or a working wife. I promptly latched on to an after school job that brought me home about 6 o'clock. In order to maintain and improve teaching skills I carried university units which meant eat and run two nights a week. Other meetings with various teacher organizations, with other teachers to plan effective programs to meet changing needs, with parents of a child with problems, or to plan a weekend job, took every other week night.

At 11 or 12 o'clock face a stack of papers not only to correct, but also to diagnose in order to discover the best way to reach John with his reading, or Jane in mathematics, or Joe in how to get along better in school.

And, oh yes, get a pretty good plan set up for tomorrow, be sure to order that film you want for a week from next Tuesday, remember to meet with another teacher before school to exchange some textbooks we're sharing, remember that you have a conference with Mary about improving her study habits, and don't forget the attendance records are due on Friday and that it's your turn for noon duty next month.

Maybe at 2 a.m., maybe, I can hit the hay. All week, week after week. On weekends, household and yard chores, church, plan a rough weekly schedule for school, and say hello to my wife and children.

Summer of '58. More units to take, more jobs to line up, maybe work in a project or two at home. We did go to two movies last summer.

And a salary increase . . .

Then September. A raise in salary was due. One jump for successfully completing 15 units of more university training, and one jump (increment) for classroom experience—I was a year more valuable to the district now. This double jump shows that on the salary schedule my pay was to be $4470.

Now my take home pay for teaching, and with no voluntary deductions such as health insurance, was $309 per month. Feed, clothe, house, and transport a family of six on this?

Our budget is pretty tight. We get by on $25 a week for food, including milk, but I'm getting tired of 2 or 3 meatless dinners and hamburger in 1001 disguised forms. We're gradually improving the appearance of our two-bedroom home. The kids change their clothes right after school and wear the mended ones for play so the shoes, etc. will last a little longer. But someone needs a tonsillectomy or dental work, or the car needs repair, so—quick, line up more jobs. $309 won't stretch THAT far.

Here we go again . . .

So another school year has just passed, even more hectic than the first, and I've signed to "go it again," although more of my colleagues have pulled out again this year. A glutton for punishment, perhaps, but I'm doing what I really like, during school hours.

Summer is here again. Some of the salary withheld from me from September until June will come this month and next to help foot tuition bills, and feed hungry mouths in case the cannery isn't hiring, or cement work is crowded, or carpentry is slow. No company car, expense accounts, or fringe benefits help ease some of the expenses. I'm looking forward to a week or so of rest in some secluded camping spot before school starts and maybe get to know my family better.

What's in store for next year? Why can't I teach school and still live like a human being? S.P.C.A. would step in if animals were made to run this pace! I really believe the public is unaware of a teacher's life, unless it's one of the public who lives next door to one of us "working fools" (I'm quoting a neighbor).

The public next door is aware that at the end of the day teachers are physically, intellectually, and emotionally "gone," and at the end of the school year this exhaustion really hits with no time for a break. The public next door is aware that our work is not left at the office, and that our kids aren't wearing the latest trends, and that father is seldom home, and that when he is home, he can't settle down with the sport page or with TV the way next door's father can. But ALL the public can't live next door to a teacher so that they can see that people, not just credentials, are hired to educate their children.

That these people are doing a job they like to do and should not be penalized economically for it. That these people are professional and should be considered the pros who know their jobs and responsibilities. That these people have a right, an earned right, to live in a community like this, without depending upon hamburger combinations and sideline jobs. A right to spend their working time in their profession and to realize a reasonable leisure time to unwind a little. Is this really asking so much?

One more year . . .

I'm jumping on this merry-go-round one more year and next June I'll decide whether or not it's worth it. But I am going to find a way to live without cutting off five years of my life for every one I teach. I sincerely hope that teachers will gain the status of professional people that they have earned, and not be forced to enter other fields in order to attain this.

Lafayette, WC Cop Two in Legion

San Pablo Dumps Oilers While Orindans Split

Lafayette Legion copped a pair of wins over the weekend as did Walnut Creek while Orinda split.

Highlight of the weekend play was an upset 4-1 win by San Pablo over Richmond who up to last Sunday were undefeated.

RICHMOND IS still far enough in front that they have sewn up the Division One title as there is but one round of play to go and that takes place tomorrow.

In last Sunday's game at Rodeo, Lafayette chalked up an 11-5 win despite the fact that each club account for an even dozen hits.

Rodeo's game was hurt no end by eight errors to two for the winners, plus the fact that pitcher Phil Leal and Tom Strain kept the Rodeo hits well scattered.

Big stick for the Lafayette nine was Stew Fox who tapped out two singles, a double and a triple for a top afternoon at the plate. Catcher Lou Cosso hit for two singles and a triple while Denny Toll for a pair of safeties to pace the Lafayette attack.

Batteries: Lafayette: Leal, Strain (7) and Cosso.

Rodeo: Jiminez, B. Strain (5) and Carzo.

IN SATURDAY'S play at the Acalanes High School field, Lafayette was outhit by San Pablo 4-2 but reversed the figures in the run column with a 4-2 score.

San Pablo committed three errors to Lafayette's two.

Lafayette collected three big runs in the third to take a 3-0 lead. The runs came on three errors and a sacrifice bunt along with a walk.

San Pablo scored a lone run in the fourth frame as did Lafayette and then the visitors scored the game's final run in the sixth.

Batteries: Lafayette: Toll and Cosso.

San Pablo: Reynolds and Guillard.

WALNUT CREEK copped a pair when North Richmond forfeited by non-appearance Sunday and they won a 7-0 shutout over Harry Ells on Saturday.

Wade Hamen tossed a nifty three hitter while notching the win while Walnut Creek rapped out 10 safeties.

Walnut Creek collected two runs in the fourth inning, three in the seventh and another two in the ninth.

BOB SAMUELS, Hansen and Jim Murphy each collected three hits to aid the winning cause.

Batteries: Walnut Creek: Hansen and Ransome.

Harry Ells: Sargent and Cola.

In Sunday's play, Harry Ells, playing at home, toppled Orinda 5-2 with the difference being decided in the opening inning when they scored three runs.

The only other scoring came when each club scored single runs in the sixth and seventh.

The game was loosely played in spots as Ells committed eight errors and Orinda five.

Batteries: Orinda: Tarrascia and Albo.

Ells: Dalen and Cola.

IN SATURDAY'S play, Orinda came through with one of the season's top upsets as they nailed Martinez 9-4 with a 15-hit outburst. Martinez collected seven safeties while each team had four errors.

Martinez had a 4-3 lead going into the bottom of the eighth when Orinda errupted with six big runs with Jim Tonsacias double and home runs by Rob Anthonisen and Dave Rhoda being the big blows.

BRUCE HANCOCK shut out Martinez in the ninth to sew up the win.

Anthonisen wound up with a pair of homers and a triple.

Rhoda had a homer and three singles while Hancock hit for a pair of doubles and a single to take hitting honors for the Orinda nine.

Batteries: Orinda: Anthonisen, Hancock (8) and Albo.

Martinez: Rooney, Kinion (8) and Quontametto.

In other games over the weekend, Martinez dropped El Cerrito 7-6, El Sobrante spilled Concord 8-6, San Pablo upset Richmond 4-1, Concord edged Rodeo 10-9 and Richmond outscored El Sobrante 6-1.

Kane Low Gross in Diablo Tourney

Low gross in the July 9 medal play Diablo Country Club Home and Home with Tracy Country Club was Mrs. Lee Kane, 81.

Concord Pilot Grabs First Victory at Hard Top Oval

By JEAN McGUIRE

In a decidely new and aggressive style of driving, Hugh Payne, Concord's veteran pilot, won his first trophy dash last Saturday night at Contra Costa Speedway in Pacheco.

He also won the first heat, and came in second in the semi-main event.

CHET STROCK, another Concord boy, was out for the first time in a new car, Number 50. His driving was no less skillful than Payne's, as he won the semi-main event, and came in second in the first heat.

Jack McCleod of Napa won the main event for the first time. It was really a night for dark horses.

Of the top three in the point battle, defending champion Wally Baker of Sacramento, did best with a second place in the main, marking the fourth straight week "Crazy Wheels" has been third or better in the feature.

Napa's Gene Dudley, who just a week ago wrested the lead from Johnny Franklin, Santa Rosa, blew a crank shaft in the final heat and was unable to show in the main. The "Santa Rosa Jet" finished seventh.

PETALUMA'S LeROY Geving, finishing fourth in the main behind John Scardino, San Francisco, continues his climb up the point ladder.

Franklin regained first place in the hardtop drivers' point race and Gene Dudley dropped to third, behind Wally Baker.

With only 22 points separating them, the top three will have their cars ready for top action on tomorrow night's racing card. A 25 lap main tops the 13th program of the year.

Franklin, on the strength of a seventh place finish last week, leads with 432 points.

Final Games in Legion League Are Tomorrow

The Ninth District Junior Legion baseball winds up play tomorrow when the final round will be played.

Richmond, with four games in front of the pack, has won the Division One title. The Richmond nine will meet El Sobrante which is two games in front in Division Two for a three game play-off series on July 19, 25 and 26 for the right to enter the area playoff to start in Redwood City on July 29.

Final games on tap tomorrow are as follows:

Ells at Richmond
Rodeo at El Cerrito
Danville at Miramonte
Concord at Martinez
Walnut Creek at San Pablo
Lafayette at El Sobrante
Contra Costa Babe Ruth play tomorrow finds:
Pinole at Pittsburg
El Sobrante at Richmond

Dixon Farmer Nabs Nation Pentathlon; 'Looks Great'

By ERWIN MATTSON

The name of Dixon Farmer popped into the news again last week when he won the National A.A.U. Pentathlon title.

Farmer, a graduate of Miramonte High School's first senior class this year, has been making headlines in track news ever since grammar school where he won every event he entered.

DIXON WILL attend Occidental College this fall and may well land a spot on the Olympic games team.

He had entered the national Decathalon meet earlier but weight problems due to his size. He is tall — around six feet — but lacked the heft necessary for weight events although he does surprisingly well with his approximate 170 pounds.

Don Ferrarese the ex-Don, made a brief appearance on television last Sunday when he went in to relieve in the ninth for Cleveland.

DON, WHO HAS A 5-3 win-lose record stands tied for sixth in league earned run average. He has been on the shelf for some time due to illness but appears fit and ready once again.

Football is just around the corner and before long the '49'ers and thousands of fans will be flocking to Saint Mary's College where the pros hold practice sessions.

* * *

Summer season sports are beginning to wind up and the preps will soon begin to condition themselves for the pigskin sport.

Those who have real desire — and they are the ones who will make the grade — are starting now to get in shape for football.

ONE THING A player should do is to get new shoes as soon as possible in order to break them in gradually.

It's rough to break in new shoes with the start of practice sessions which are, of necessity, intense in nature.

The new shoes should be worn at brief intervals and broken in gradually, then increase the amount of time worn over a period of several weeks.

To not start until practice opens is to invite trouble as blisters become the order of the day and blisters really slow one down or may stop players altogether.

Orthoptic Clinic Hospital Opens

Children who do not use both eyes together may now receive training to change their habit patterns in the orthoptic clinic which has just been opened at Children's Hospital of the East Bay, according to Dr. Randolph Sharpsteen, head of the hospital's department of opthamology (care of the eyes).

CHILDREN are helped to coordinate the use of both eyes with a machine called a troposcope. The one at Children's Hospital is the first to be installed at any East Bay hospital, Dr. Sharpsteen states.

Training is usually given following surgery for the correction of cross eyes (strabismus). In some instances, the training is started before surgery, and then continued after it

County Deer Hunt Starts July 25

The 1959 early deer season will open on the coast July 25 and continue through September 13.

Bag limit will be two bucks throughout the area. The counties open are:

Contra Costa, Mendocino, Sonoma, Lake, Napa, Solano, Alameda, Marin, San Mateo, Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, San Benito, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura and parts of Kern, Kings, Fresno, Merced, Stanislaus, San Joaquin, Glenn, Colusa, Trinity and Humboldt.

Sportsmen Told Of Fire Danger

Contra Costa has had one of the driest years in history and as a consequence, the fire hazard this summer and autumn in wood and grass lands is critical.

Fish and Game Director William E. Warne urged hunters, fishermen and other utilizing outdoor recreation areas to remember the following safety rules concerning fire:

Break matches in two.
Carefully put out cigars, cigarettes and pipe dottle.
Use an ash tray in the car.
Have a can partially filled with water in camp.
Make sure campfires are dead before leaving camp or going to bed at night.
Carry litter bags in the car.

VACATIONING at the Halekulani Hotel, Waikiki Beach, are Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Duffy and Terrie, 12, and John, 7, of 1186 Glen Road, Lafayette. With them are Mrs. Duffy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Luedeking of Pleasant Hill, whose golden wedding anniversary is being celebrated by the group. The children are enjoying the beach sports, the surfing and swimming, while their elders relax in the congenial atmosphere of their beachside hotel, the Halekulani. The group arrived on the Lurline and will return by plane.

500 Invited to Attend Papaya Branch Benefit

Five hundred invitations are in the mail for the alfresco party at The Shadows, home of Mrs. George A. Newhall, 10 Margaret Lane, Danville.

This gala event, the largest function yet undertaken by the Papaya Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay, for husbands and friends, will be held Saturday, August 1 commencing at 5 o'clock.

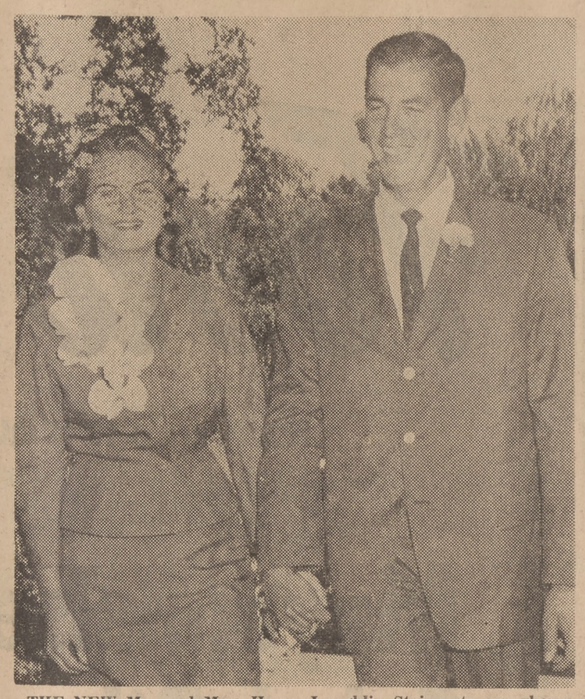
Mrs. John H. Russell, general chairman, held a committee meeting at her lovely Diablo home Tuesday, July 7 evening for final plans with the following Papaya members in attendance: Mesdames Robert C. Seaton, Danville, branch chairman; John Hagopian, Diablo, vice-chairman; Louis D. Scott and Alfred Jones both of Alamo; James Lange, Vern S. Ryan and Robert J. Lang, all Danville.

All branch members of this group will serve in the roles of hostesses.

They will don Hawaiian leis and attraetive name tags on their summer cotton frocks. Other members hostessing in addition to those above named will be Mesdames Donald V. Weir, Alamo; Al Kaplan, San Ramon; Hubbard C. Howe Jr., Diablo; and Robert E. Olson, Robert J. Wedemyer, William F. Reed, Harvey Hanrahan, John May and Robert W. Krull, all representing Danville.

Committee chairmen named to assist Mrs. Russell are Mrs. Louis D. Scott, co-chairman; Mrs. James Lange, food; Mrs. Vern S. Ryan, decorations; Mrs. Alfred Jones, public relations. Helping with invitations were Mesdames Oscar H. Krikorian, Robert J. Lang, James D. Kress, F. L. Brown and James Lange.

Entertainment will feature the local jazz combo "The Starlites" led by piano player Gary Xaxier of Danville. Other members of his band are Jerry Bell, drums; Dave Firestone, guitar and vocal; Vicki Voll, bass; Roger Husted, sax; and Dick Bice, trumpet.



THE NEW Mr. and Mrs. Harry Laughlin Steinmetz are shown after their recent wedding in Lafayette. The bride is the former Salley Ann Shipley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Shipley. The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Steinmetz of San Diego. —Photo by Ted Gurney.

THE VALLEY BAPTIST Church Chapel was the scene of the wedding of June Self and Lt. jg Glenn Shader, July 5. A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Chi Omega Residence Tour To Aid Retarded Children

Chi Omega East Bay alumnae are holding several committee meetings at intervals during the summer for those members who are available to discuss the house tour in Contra Costa county scheduled for Saturday afternoon, October 3, to benefit the East Bay Association for Retarded Children, their local philanthropic project.

The first meeting for hostesses was held at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Hoge, 5811 Scarborough Drive in Montclair, on Tuesday morning, July 14, with Mrs. Cyril J. Attwood, Mrs. Wallace S. Hunter, Mrs. William C. Johnson, Mrs. Irvin Huntting, Mrs. Igor R. Blake, Mrs. James W. Gustafson, Mrs. Charles T. McGinley Jr., and alumnae president Mrs. G. Wesley Malkson participating.

On their return from summer vacations, other hostesses will be briefed at meetings by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Malkson, chairmen, and Mrs. Hoge and Mrs. Alice Butcher Hardison, tea chairmen.

Mrs. Blake, herself a decorator and member of A.I.D., who is serving as house selection chairman, announced that the tour will include the following decorator homes: the Mark Noble house at 6 Crane Court, Orinda; the bachelor establishment of Leslie E. Carlson and Ralph Lestikow at 10 El Campanero, Orinda; the Malcomn McKenna hillside house at 4140 Canyon Road, Lafayette; the Alan F. Kelsey residence and Oriental gardens at 4055 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

The tour will end at the home of Mrs. Borroughs Hoover, 4081 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, which will be open for inspection and refreshments from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. on October 3.

Other Chi Omega alumnae serving as chairmen for the fall fund-raising event include the following: Mrs. Gustafson, general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ralph E. Brown and Mrs. Robert F. Kayser; Mrs. Reuben Hatherly, Mrs. William C. Johnson and Mrs. Newell Bent, publicity; Mrs. Malkson, tickets; Mrs. William T. Selby, reservations and maps.

The October house tour will be the only affair to be held by local Chi Omega alumnae this year to raise funds to benefit EBARC.

Judith Ann Lavinder Weds Frederic Siegrist

The marriage of Judith Ann Lavinder to Frederic Neil Siegrist recently took place in First Presbyterian Church, Concord.

Judith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lavinder of Lafayette. Frederic is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Siegrist of Oakland.

Given in marriage by her father, Judith was attended by her sister Susan, who was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Linda Johnston and Mrs. Ralph Burgess.

J. Donald Brinkeroff was best man. Ushers were Robert Breckenridge, David Holland and Duayne Kennedy.

Judith wore a silk organza bridal gown with applique lace and beaded seed pearls. It had a bustle back with large bow and trani. Her hat effect was organza and lace with elbow length veil.

The bride carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Judith's mother wore an aqua eyelet sheath gown and carried pink rose buds. Her hat was of embroidered organza.

Frederic's mother wore a rose organza gown with matching hat, gloves and shoes.

Judith's attendants wore gowns of yellow silk organza with bubble skirts, yellow mitts and net picture hats with matching shoes.

The church was beautifully decorated with white gladiolas, pale yellow and lavender stock in large white baskets.

After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Ernest Badley, a reception was held at the Lavinder home on Diablo View Road, Lafayette.

After a Lake Tahoe honey moon the couple will make their home in Pleasant Hill.

Sally Shipley Is Married to Harry Steinmetz

Sally Ann Shipley and Harry Laughlin Steinmetz were married recently in ceremonies held in the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Shipley on Los Arabis Road, Lafayette. The Reverend William Pothier performed the ceremony.

Harry is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Steinmetz of San Diego.

Sally was attended by her sister, Betty, who wore a champagne silk dress.

The bride chose a blue Italian silk suit and wore white orchids grown by Dr. Kenneth Thompson.

Best man was Harry's cousin, Dale Laughlin of Modesto.

The bride's mother wore a pink linen sheath and wore an orchid corsage.

Dr. and Mrs. Steinmetz are vacationing in Europe and could not attend the ceremony.

The Shipley resident was decorated with white stock, snapdragons and carnations.

After a honeymoon in Carmel and Santa Barbara, Sally and Harry will live in San Diego.

June Self Marries In Walnut Creek

June Carolyn Self and Lt. (jg) Glenn Evans Shrader were married July 5 in the Valley Baptist Chapel by Reverend Melvin Pekrul.

She is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Charles B. Self, 1245 Elmwood Drive, Walnut Creek. His parents are the Floyd McFarlands of Huntington Park.

The bride graduated this June from Mills College. The groom is a Cal Poly graduate now serving in the Navy.

They are now honeymooning in the southwest and plan to make their home at the Presidio in San Francisco.

Maid of honor was Miss Gail Grola, bridesmaid Miss Sandra Thompson. Best man was the groom's brother-in-law, William Sutton. Ushers were Lt. Charles R. Self, and Lt. (jg) Richard Sams of Oakland.

Muir Auxiliary To Name Branch

Branches of John Muir Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will "follow the John Muir Trail" in taking their names from landmarks loved by the famous naturalist and conservationist.

This was decided by some fifty auxiliary members at their second meeting, conducted by Mrs. Charles J. Hart, Wednesday morning at the new real estate office board room in Walnut Creek.

A map of the John Muir Trail will be on display at the auxiliary's next meeting, Wednesday, August 12, for inspiration in naming area branches now forming.

Lively discussion on branch name possibilities included use of plants, flowers, or stones with which Muir was most familiar, parks made possible by his foresight, names of historic Spanish settlers of Contra Costa County, recent civic leader of communities the hospital will serve, famous women scientists, and localities in which the branches are being organized.

Edmund S. Barnett, Walnut Creek attorney heading the $750,000 hospital building fund drive, spoke on the need for John Muir Hospital and the vital importance of support by an enthusiastic group of women in achieving the drive goal.

"The hospital is a reality," Barnett emphasized. "Building will begin this fall because financing is guaranteed. But part of this guaranteed financing includes a second mortgage near maximum interest rates. The large amount of extra cost involved can be better used in equipping the hospital and making it larger if the building fund campaign is successful."

Hospital auxiliary members may sell voting memberships in John Muir Memorial Hospital Association. Persons contributing one hundred dollars or more and maintaining annual dues of one dollar will be entitled to vote for future hospital board members. This will enable interested citizens of the wide area that the hospital will serve to elect trustees of their choice. Contributions can be made on a 36-month pledge basis, income tax deductible over a period of three years, Mrs. Hart explained.

A panel of doctors discussing the new hospital is planned for the next auxiliary meeting by Mrs. A. A. Nickel, vice-president in charge of programming.

An outstanding social event is tentatively planned for late September. Details will be announced at the August meeting.

More of the now-familiar carnation - trimmed straw hats promoting the hospital building fund drive were sold at the meeting. Additional hats may be obtained through the 1353 Locust Street volunteer office, it was announced.

General auxiliary meetings are to be held on second Wednesday mornings of each month. Membership chairman is Mrs. Carl Knecht, YE 5-5548.

Others introduced were Mrs. Owen L. Williams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank E. Young, recording secretary; Mrs. Louis G. Madsen, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert W. Hoyer, public relations chairman, of the advisory council

Eastern Star Initiates New Members Saturday

Tomorrow, Almona chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its regular stated meeting in the Masonic Temple, Walnut Creek.

A class of candidates will receive the degrees of the order on this evening, and this initiation and the business of the evening will be presided over by Worthy Matron Vera Vaile Foss, and Worthy Patron Shirley Peakes.

The banquet room and refreshments are in charge of Associate Matron Ethel Turner, and the theme of the evening will be "Vacation Days."

Discrimination in Housing Banned by New State Laws

Governor Edmund G. Brown signed into law a bill prohibiting discrimination based on race or religion in the sale or rental of publicly assisted housing.

The bill is AB 890, authored by Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins (D) of Los Angeles. It provides that any person aggrieved by violation of the law may seek injunctive relief and damages of not less than $500.

"I COUNT this one of the most substantial forward steps of the recent session of the State Legislature," Governor Brown said in signing the bill.

"Early in the session, the Legislature passed, and I signed California's first Fair Employment Practices Law, prohibiting discrimination in employment," he said.

"Now, with the Hawkins bill, we have outlawed discrimination in the sale and rental of publicly assisted housing," he added. "This bill ranks with FEPC as a reaffirmation of the American principle of equal opportunity for all."

THE BILL defines publicly assisted housing as any residential accommodation which is:

1. Granted a tax exemption (except veterans' exemptions).
2. Built on public land sold below cost or acquired by condemnation.
3. Located in a multiple dwelling and is built acquired or maintained with funds insured by the federal, state or local governments or any of their agencies.
4. Offered for sale by anyone who owns or otherwise controls five or more housing accommodations on land that is contiguous if built, acquired or maintained with funds insured by the federal, state or local governments or any of their agencies.

THE TERM "discriminate" as used in the bill includes to segregate or separate.

The bill not only prohibits refusal to sell or rent or to discriminate in the terms of selling or rental, but also bars any written or oral inquiry by the owner concerning the race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry of a person seeking to purchase or rent publicly assisted housing.

Horn and Horse Sense Revealed

Many a motorist depends a great deal more on his horn than on his "horse sense" to get him by in traffic.

The National Automobile Club points out that you've probably seen the type. Somehow or other he seems to feel that if he blows that horn loud enough and long enough, all will go well. When he finds himself caught in traffic that is a little congested, he just starts to blow his horn.

Whenever anyone interrups his line of travel in the slightest, he leans on that button. Whenever he's approaching an intersection, he makes no slow down in his speed, makes no allowance for the cars that might be coming in the other direction, but just blasts the horn and then crashes on through.

Don't drive so. It's always much better to use that horn sparingly and to use your brakes, your steering wheel, and your accelerator more skillfully and more judiciously. Don't depend on your horn. Depend on your "horse sense" to get you by in traffic.

Stanford Announces Honor Entrance List

Three Orindans and one resident of Walnut Creek are among the 247 freshmen who will enter Stanford University in the fall with "honors at entrance."

The honor, which does not carry a monetary grant, is awarded to the top 15 per cent of the entering class, based on high school academic records.

THE THREE Orindans are Babette Ambler, William Cline and Peter Lewis—all Miramonte High School graduates.

From Walnut Creek is Margaret Ann Warner, a graduate of Las Lomas High.

A special certificate, signed by Rixford Snyder, Stanford's director of admissions, is sent to each honor student.

CARE Announces New Gift Plan To Aid Needy

A special CARE gift plan to remember friends at home and to send help to the needy overseas at the same time has been announced by Michael C. Phillips, CARE Regional Director.

"Whether someone wishes to observe a birthday, wedding, anniversary, graduation, confirmation, or other event; or to offer consolation to a bereaved family, CARE now has a special card which will notify friends here at home of the gift, and distribute aid to people in need overseas in the name of those friends," he said.

The gift plan has been revised as a result of requests by CARE'S contributors for such a service.

Everyone wishing to use the gift plan should mention the occasion, list the name and full address of the person who is to be notified and include his own name and address with the contribution.

This information should be sent to the Regional CARE Office at 444 Market Street, San Francisco.

CARE will then send a card for the donor advising his friends of the gift and will include the friends' names with the aid given to the needy overseas.

Further information on the CARE gift plan may be obtained from the CARE office.

Air Reserve Make New Assignments

New assignments to the 9441 Air Reserve Squadron include First Lt. Robert M. Goodwin, 1411 Black Hawk Court, Lafayette, recently on duty with the Strategic Air Command, March Air Force Base, Riverside, Calif., as a navigator-bombardier on B-47 bombers.

Major Eugene P. Best, 101 Pesada, Walnut Creek, has received an assignment for active duty training with the Sadrumante Air Materiel Area (AMC), Mclellan AFB, Calif., with administration and inactive duty training contining with the 9441 Air Reserve Squadron, 2640 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Walnut Creek.

Air Force officers not presently affilliated with the active Air Reserve are urged to apply for assignment with the 9441 ARS, which will allow them to retain their commissions and be eligible for promotions and retirement benefits.

Inactive reservists are being discharged from the Air Reserve for non-participation and failure to keep their qualifications commensurate with their civilian occupations.

Good drivers keep their cars in good mechanical condition, points out the National Automobile Club.

Orinda Girl Vies for Miss Contra Costa Title

Susan Holmes of Orinda, a native of Mexico City and a 1959 graduate of Miramonte High School, is an entrant in the Miss Contra Costa contest which will open the Antioch County Fair July 30.

Susan, 17, was president of the Miramonte Girls Athletic Association and the "Dianas," a branch of the Children's Foster Care Service, and a member of the student council. She was also head pom-pom girl at Miramonte.

A resident of Contra Costa for the past five years, she lives with her family at 4 Diablo View.

SUSAN IS five feet eight and a half, 122 pounds, with 35-25-36 measurements, brown hair, blue eyes and medium complexion.

As her exhibition of talent in the beauty contest sponsored by the Contra Costa County Development Association, Susan will perform a pantomime act.

50 Students Will Exhibit Arts-Crafts

The work of approximately 50 youngsters will be shown by the arts and crafts class at Pine Grove School Thursday, July 23, from 10 a.m. until 12 noon.

The arts-crafts projects were made as part of the five-week summer school program. Students are from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

The exhibit will be held in the Home Arts Room.

The arts and craft classes end next Friday, July 24, so parents and friends of students are invited to see the youngsters' work Thursday.

Tennis Group Plays First Interclub Sets

Orinda Tennis Club played its first interclub match of the year against the Walnut Creek Tennis Club Saturday at the Acalanes High School courts.

Walnut Creek emerged the winner at nine matches to three.

Due to the intense heat, several matches were defaulted, but the following brave souls put ice cubes in their caps and carried on:

'Miss America' Leaves Estate Of $100,000

Approximately $100,000 was the value of the estate of the late Mrs. Fay Lanphier Daniels of Orinda who died June 21. She was California's first "Miss America" back in 1925.

Mrs. Daniels' will was filed in Superior Court last week.

The will leaves the money in trust for her husband, Winfield Daniels, and her two daughters, Marily and Mrs. George Hager of Lafayette.

A sister, Mrs. Dolly MacFadden of San Lorenzo, received $1000.

Certain other provisions were made to provide medical expenses for Mrs. Daniels' mother, Mrs. Emil Emory of Oakland.

For the past 25 years Mrs. Daniels spent life quietly as an Orinda housewife.

Freeman Takes Orinda Match

Results of the Orinda Country Club July 10 Ladies' "Match vs. Par" tournament are in, placing Mrs. J. W. Small at the top in Class A.

Following her were Mrs. Miller Freeman, 1 up, and Mrs. Edgar B. Stewart, 1 down.

In class B Mrs. Rene Worthington took the match 2 down, followed by Mrs. W. L. Calhoun, even, and Mrs. T. Neil Taylor, 1 down.

Mrs. James Cadien was first in class C, 1 up, followed by Mrs. John Tiedemann, even, and Mrs. Norman Clay, 2 down.

Maudie Hammond At Dance Workshop

Maudie Hammond, of 14 Van Tassel Lane, Orinda, is participating in a two-week dance workshop at the Berkeley campus of the University of California.

Presented by university extension, the workshop is conducted by May O'Donnell, her company of eight dancers and musical director, Ray Green.

By MARIE MONAHAN

Bless our Mounted Greenery Home!

Everybody has a Favorite Place. We have ours!

The minute we're there, we know it. Our whole perspective changes as we round that last curve along the red-earth road that brings us to the Berkeley Tuolumne Camp.

WITH some people, it's a tradition of 25 years or longer. For Newcomers like ourselves (5 yrs. attdg. the Family Retreat) well, it couldn't compare to making a Cook's Tour of Canada. At least not for the children. This is THEIR Place.

And we're smitten, too. We'll probably chalk up 20 more yrs. as a Berkeley Camper. (That is, unless THIS area does something about getting a camp of its own. Just like Berk. Tuolumne!)

LIKE OLD HOME WEEK . . . Lafayette Lad Morgan Jellett of Glenside Dr., doing a Good Job, directs the Recreation activities w/Claudi Bertucci, Stanford co-ed who schooled in Germany w/Smed Ambler of Orinda & we promised to say Hello.

On a hike to Carlon Falls & a picnic lunch & plunge into snowy waters, we met Walt & Marguerite Wendt of Happy Valley Rd. who were there for a stay w/their children. We visited them later at their tent right alongside the river & Walt had ingeniously suspended the canvas Casbah-style (Nomads' home is his castle?) or as Marguerite more aptly put it—"Welcome to Trader Vic's."

BLESS our Mountain Greenery Home . . . A canvas tent w/a wooden floor. A bucket & a brand new broom at door. A deck around on which are cots on which are sleeping bags for tots. We gladly chuck aside all the Better Homes & Gardens business for our temporary Tent-House. OURS always at the base of a vernal mountain slope w/a backyard Big as Life filled w/ferns & Flora & Fauna. Decor is easy—simply furnished w/bright beach towels, burlap hangings & bathing suits hung out to dry on the line. A fishing pole, tubes & badminton rackets make it Home!

Early to Bed & Early to Rise . . .

ON THE BREAKFAST Hike (it's worth Getting Up Early for!) we met Betsy & Bob Lord of Pleasant Hill. He's a teacher at Acalanes. Kay & Bob Brackett & Their Four were among the Laf. folk leaping to the Lodge at the sound of the Dining Bells. Sitting down family-style to good meals we didn't have to shop for, cook for or even think about, was the Biggest Treat of all. Adding to the dining room enjoyment is Staff member Kathy Barnum whose family the Louis Barnums of Springfield Rd. were expected up this wk.

ON THE BADMINTON COURTS . . . The Leo LaPlants of Orchard Ct., Orinda . . . ditto Glen & Marge Hansen from Oak Grove Manor who arrived w/their 4 youngsters the day we left. Orindans Pat & Bud Loughman & their Irish Tribe were up for a week, taking one day to Yosemite, another fishing at Jawbone Creek.

Nancy & Paul Mouser, another pair of Perennial Campers from Orinda, sang for their supper w/their three young men along (they expect No. 4 SOON!) Paul & a Berkeley Camper teamed up to play a terrific piano for some good listening & community singing of all the Old Favorites. Mouser, too, co-captained the traditional Volley Ball Game w/Oakland Camp. UP for this from 10 mi. down the road was Roger Almond, Orinda Young Man who is a Staffer at the other camp. Resplendent in a cable-stitch tennis sweater & white shorts, he played on the Oakland Staff team (he's "Utilities Engineer"!) Later he introduced us to genial Andy Viscovich, Oakland Camp director who took over where Orinda's Mel Nickerson left off after 8 yrs.

GOSH, we felt good! Walking, hiking, loafing, Living (oh, that mountain air) so why is it we are now home nursing a cold? We weren't even too uncomfortable during the Heat Wave. That was the day we hiked to Carlon w/Messrs. Wendt & Loughman carrying the heaviest load—each a huge Watermelon, surging onward & upward, hearts hammering in the hot noon sun!

The nice family of Andy & Gina Stojkovich were there from SAC. They are former Orindans, who having met the Phil Champions at camp many yrs. back, ultimately sold the C's their Canon Drive home. We said Hello for Phil & Cappy. Dorothy Saph enjoying herself for a LONG stay was expecting her daughter Peggy Wolfe of Orinda & her 3 grandchildren up next wk. & already had the company of another dghtr. Vivian Dabble. They among the Real Old Timers. Peggy & her sister have been going since they were tykes of Two!

I can't escape from you. . .

QUITE A CREW from the area! The Ted Barcelons (Laf. Realty man) up w/the Harvey Mortons, burned the lamps over Bridge in the Lodge at night after Lights Out. After Sunday church we chatted w/Jean Slusser & her mother Alice Slusser who were up from the Oakland Camp where young Steve Slusser is also on the Staff.

SO WE CLOSE our Camp Log, a little lonesome for our Mountain Greenery Home.

Here, we've got problems. The wading through mountains of dirty clothes & the Washing Machine breaking down again. The iron falling off the board & Oh, Betty Crocker, what do we do now! The radio is having tube trouble & the TV is just a picture of so much protozoa. Civilization isn't the same. We wish we were back in the Woods!

A mad mid-morning dash to the hospital the other 4:30 a.m. proved a False Alarm but a pleasant day's rest for Blanche Brody who is lucky. She HAS a "Doctor In The House."

Along Loma Vista Dr. it looks like Tom Sawyer was turned loose w/a bucket of Whitewash. Just Stuart Henderson really, who has a good recipe for the same & brightens up the neighbors' mailboxes & tree trunks when he's got some left over.

THIRD Time's a Charm . . . The Fri. nite Rheem Patio Dances (sponsored by the Schwedhelms of Patio Music Shop) got off to a weak start because of the 4th holiday wknd. The second Fri. survived a bit more successful. So here's a 3rd try, Once More With Feeting, so join in the fun at Rheem tonight from 8-10:30. The stars, music, fresh ail all FREE. Buy you can always get a coke & burger at the brand new T-Bones just oped recently.

Spkg. of romantic places (which we weren't, were we?) well, there's the oldtime Park Pool, its dance floor nestled right in the oaks, the stars overhead. How about giving it the Old World Treatment & stringing up Japanese lanterns all around? The light (when it was ON) at the 4th dance was a huge unwelcome beacon. But the glow from lanterns is ethereal, My Deareal!

HAYRIDE in July was the delight of the DEBS (Miramonte Girls Club sponsored by Orinda Woman's Club) & their Dates last Sat. nite. First a barbecue, each gal toting a box lunch & hot dogs to roast, then the fun of singing & bouncing along the country roads.

The old Owl peering down from his place in the pines told us he saw WHOOOOO? The following Debs & Dates . . . Martha Spicer & Tom Brooks, Joan Miller & Corbett Kroll, Diane Halsted & Squire Fridell, Priscilla Devin & Mike Cane, Mary Morehead & Pete Read, Carol Smith Buddy Boger, Tyrol Landy & Bob Connelly, Darnette Palatino & Hampton Hoague & Linda Shirey & Don Howard. The Don Woodcocks (she's advisor) were along for the fun, too. They leave for Camp Wallace Alexander on the Feather River to visit their Scouts Gary & "D.B." this wknd, as do the Dick Bottjers who'll visit w/Jan. Also the Stan Hunns, Bob Lesters & Marilyn Bond going up, the latter to see her husband Roger who is Scoutmaster.

THE LIONS ROARED last Fri. nite, the Orinda & Laf. clubs combined in a joint venture at The Willows (Some Joint!) where they entertained their Lionesses w/dinner, dancing, entertainment & Orchid corsages.

We mean it was WILD, Cat! Like Stu Wade of the Orinda Lions presiding over the festivities he co-chrmned. w/Danny Dye, Laf. Lions Prez.

Several awards were made to the Orinda Club men, Laf. having made theirs at a previous meeting (Cheetahs!) Anyhow, 20 yrs. & only Charter member still around—JOE NAVONE. Give him a Big Growl. 15 yrs. perfect attendance for George Hartzell, Sr. & Carl Millers. 10 yrs. perfect attendance to Stu Wade. 15 yrs. Old Monarch service to Harry Biederman, Nathan Gray, George Hartzell, Jr., Austin Little & Stu Wade.

SPEC. GUESTS were Ed Valentine of the El Cerrito Club & now Zone Chrmn. for District 4 C-3 (whatever that means!) & Lou Borgezone, founder of the Laf. Club & sponsor for the Orinda Club now residing in Kelseyville, Lake Co.

THE PROWLER, some cat like a wild one we know, reports that the extra spec. entertainment was one of the best acts seen around there in a long time—"Mr. Personality"—Glen Haywood of the Ed Sullivan Show & many top clubs across the Nation. A special THANX from the Lions who send up a Roar for More of Owner Madge Dolio's fine food & hospitality at the Willows!

It is hoped the liberties we took w/the Lions News release doesn't have them panther-ing after us!

And if the column gets Too Corny, well, try to understand. We've gone on a mental vacation, too! All the fits that's new to print!

John Muir Hospital To Have 100 Beds If Fund Drive Goes

"A successful building fund drive can enable the hospital to start with 100 beds, substantially reducing construction and financing costs per bed," said Edmund S. Barnett, Walnut Creek attorney heading John Muir Memorial Hospital's $750,000 building fund drive, addressing members of the new hospital auxiliary. The drive begins active solicitation following a "kick-off" dinner to be held at Diablo Country Club on August 5.

Further delay in building the critically needed hospital involves rising construction and financing costs. Therefore, success in the fund drive to enable the hoped for 100-bed construction to begin this fall on the secured 10-acre Ygnacio Valley site is vital.

Contributions pledged on a three-year basis enable sizeable total donations to be paid in smaller amounts, income tax deductible over three years. Tax deductions thus make generous donations a "bargain in giving," according to hospital supporters.

"The 180,000 people of Alamo, Danville, Clayton, Concord, Lafayette, Martinez, Moraga, Orinda, Pleasant Hill and Walnut Creek can meet and even surpass the $750,000 goal, judging from success in other hospital building fund drives throughout the country," said a hospital spokesman.

Howard Sehlin, Walnut Creek banker, and treasurer of the new hospital's board of trustees, heads the finance committee. Serving with him are insuranceman Bruce Copeland, Dr. Frederick M. Hanson, and realtor Frank A. Marshall.

Campaign costs are budgeted at the nominal amount of less than three per cent of the goal. This is made possible by volunteers carrying on the drive with a campaign advisor and office manager.

Office volunteers who gave 538 hours of work through July 6 are Mesdames Roger L. Black, R. L. Curtis, H. G. DuBois, Edwin G. Robinson and L. B. Smith of Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club; Mesdames Lawrence Barker, George R. Curtis, George M. Hartwig, Fred Druse and H. Francis Sparks of Ygnacio Valley Women's Club; Mrs. Ralph Becker of Pleasant Hill Women's Club.

Misses Gail Mitchell and Gayle Holle of Las Lomas High School; Misses Peggy Hansen and Judy Nelson of Acalanes High School.

Mesdames William B. Cox, R. W. Curtis, Ralph Dora, Royal Doty, Robert Fairfield, Louis Fambrini, R. T. Hackett, T. A. Jacob, Carl Knecht, N. H. McKay Jr., Alice Osmundsen, Lester A. Pimley, E. F. Schimbor, John R. Spatta, John Strong, Albert A. Valcke, Carl Vendt, Melvin West and George Windle of Walnut Creek.

Mesdames Albert L. Jamison and Bruce Lee of Concord; Mrs. Eldo Ewert of Lafayette; Mesdames Lawrence Davitt and Gordon Van Ness of Alamo; and Mrs. Gorrill Butler of Pleasant Hill.

JOHN MUIR Memorial Hospital Auxiliary advisory council gathers around an architect's drawing of the hospital. They are, left to right, Mrs. Owen L. Williams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. A. Nickel, vice-chairman in charge of programming; and Mrs. Louis G. Madsen, treasurer. Other officers not pictured are Mrs. Frank E. Young, recording secretary; Mrs. Carl Knecht, membership chairman; Mrs. Hoover, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Robert W. Hoyer, public relations.

Humphries Made Hospital Trustee

Richard K. Humphries of Ygnacio Valley is a new trustee of the John Muir Memorial Hospital. The hospital is to be built this fall and will serve the central Contra Costa communities on a non-profit basis.

Humphries, vice president and general manager of Pacific Cement and Aggregates, Inc., is a member of the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce, Young Presidents organization and Olympic Club.

He is also a director of the Northern California Transportation Advisory Board

Waldie Drug Bill Signed; Judges Get Pay Increases

The signing of a bill increasing the penalty of anyone unlawfully furnishing any hypnotic or dangerous drug to a minor was announced today by Governor Edmund G. Brown.

The measure, AB 2129 (Assemblyman Jerome R. Waldie (D), Antioch) increases the penality for anyone found guilty of the offense from a misdemeanor to a felony. The bill was passed unanimously by both the Assembly and the Senate.

IT IS SPECIFIED that nothing in the bill shall apply to a registered pharmacist furnishing drugs pursuant to a prescription.

Governor Brown has signed into law a bill affecting unemployment and disability insurance benefits.

The bill was AB 174 (Assemblymen Phillip Burton (D), El Sobrante, and Waldie.)

It provides for unemployment and disability insurance coverage of employees of a political subdivision or instrumentality of the State upon petition by a majority of the affected employees.

THE BILL is not applicable to employees of the State of any of its departments or units. It retains the authority of the governing body of the agency affected to determine if its financial situation and policy will permit coverage.

Governor signed into law a bill increasing the salaries of the State's judges, the attorney general and the legislative counsel.

The bill is SB 679 (Senator George Miller Jr., Martinez.) It takes effect January 1, 1960.

The bill increases annual salaries of the chief justice of the State Supreme Court from $24,000 to $28,000 and of the associate justices from $23,000 to $26,000.

IT RAISES the annual salaries of the presiding justices of the Appellate Court from $22,000 to $24,000 and of justices from $21,500 to $24,000.

Superior Court judges in Contra Costa will go from $18,000 to $20,000.

The bill changes the system of of computing salaries of Municipal Court judges by relating them to the salary of the chief justice of the Supreme Court rather than those of Superior Court judges.

Municipal judges in cities of Contra Costa will go from $13,000 to $16,000.

The salary of the attorney general will be raised from $23,000 to $26,000 annually, and that of the legislative counsel will go from $19,000 to $21,000.

OTHER BILLS signed into law authorized by Contra Costa legislators include:

AB 2533 Waldie, and Masterson increases pay of Contra Costa County Superior Court reporters.

SB 669 (Senator Miller) provides a formula for apportionment between state and local governments for repair and restoration of public works damaged by storms and floods; provides for loans to local government to pay for improvements.

AB 2164 (Waldie) gives adopted or acknowledged children same status under inheritance and gift tax laws as natural children.

AB 2059 (Masterson and Waldie) extends from 50 to 60 years the maximum term for leases of small boat harbor projects. An urgency measure, effective immediately.

AB 2574 (Waldie and Masterson) clarifies amount of retirement allowance to be paid county employees who were members of the county retirement system at the time it was integrated with the Federal system and who were not fully insured for old-age payments under the Federal system at time of their retirement.

SB 1455 (Miller) requires the Highway Patrol to adopt regulations for loading and securing of metal and metal products which are transported on public highways.

SB 513 (Miller) provides that the governor shall appoint, as an exempt position, the chief of the bureau of furniture and bedding inspection to serve at his pleasure. Appointment is now by director of department of professional and vocational standards.

Local Girl Wins

Gaspard E. Weiss, president of the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies, recently announced the award of the Sally Lowenhaupt scholarship for advanced study in Spanish to Miss Mary Kay Weaver, a student at the College of Notre Dame in Belmont, California.

Miss Weaver, a member of Alpha Mu Gamma, has accepted the grant, and will reside in the Spanish House in Carmel during the summer session.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Russell Weaver, 23 Pino Crest Road, Walnut Creek.

Your Garden

Another Spring Is Here In Parts of Your Garden

Autumn in many states is a signal for an end to gardening. Plants have either finished blooming or are finishing it.

Signs of approaching winter and dormancy are everywhere at hand.

In California, on the other hand, another spring is approaching. Plants may be going out of bloom, but others are just starting. For each shrub that threatens to go dormant, another is still fresh as a daisy.

IT IS A TIME for color in many California gardens. Not the color of dying foliage but that of late dahlias and chrysanthemums, perennial asters and early camellias. And—touch of spring— of those cheerful standbys of any season—the bedding plants. Bedding plants are ever with us, and fall is surely no exception. By planting them now, you can have their color to brighten your late summer and early fall.

Selection is not so great as in spring, but the California Association of Nurserymen lists a handful of bedders that should warm the heart of any fall gardener. The important thing is to plant them now. Even the delay of ten days or so might mean that your nurseryman has sold out his last dwarf bedding dahlias. Planted now, these flashy bedders will show color in no time. They're better for pinching, however, which delays the bloom but insures a good deal more of it.

A late July planting of dwarf marigolds will bring its reward of color before summer is out. Likewise an edging of petunias or a bed of zinnias in full sun. Where July tends to be cool, as in some coastal areas, zinnias need planting in the sunniest spot against a heat-reflecting wall for best performance.

THE BUTTON-SIZE puffs of blue Ageratum are cheerfulness itself in late summer and fall, while the sprawling brightness of Verbena and starry delicacy of Lobelia can still be had if you hurry and plant.

There may be others, there may not. The supply of bedders at nurseries now is as varied as California's climate. Some areas naturally get the better of it, but then we're all lucky to have bedding plants so late in the year whatever, they are.

Home Economic Awards Will Be Given at Fair

If your talents center around the kitchen or the sewing box, then your work may garner a share of the $2660 being offered in home economics premiums by the California State Fair and Exposition, September 2-13.

A wide variety of classifications allows for entry competition from amateur chefs whose inclination is towards preparation of jams, jellies and preserves to those favoring baked goods and candy delicacies.

Needlework and handcraft enthusiasts will find an abundance of exhibition choices listed in the 1959 premium booklet.

Ceramics, china painting and leatherwork comprise one section of the handcrafts competition with hand-made dolls and carved wood sections also provided.

Tatted, woven and crocheted articles, knitted, hand-painted and embroidered items, sewing and creation of rugs and quilts are all welcome additions to the popular annual exhibit.

The menfolks, far from being left out, have a separate classification in which they can enter crocheted, knitted and woven articles and, in addition, are free to enter any of the other classifications listed in the catalogue.

Nine individual classifications are open to antique doll entries, the only stipulation being that a doll entered in competition be 50 years or older.

More detailed information may be obtained by writing to the home econocics department of the California State Fair and Exposition, Box 2036, Sacramento.

SHORTEST RAILROAD

One of the shortest railroads operating in the United States is the 2.3 mile Union Railroad that runs out of Union in Oregon.

Burn Old Stalks To Prevent Thrips' Spread

Here are things to do in your garden this week:

Lift gladiolus when the tops turn brown. Cut off the old stalks and burn them to curb any possible spreading of thrips. Store the corns in a cool, dry place.

Keep at roses with a light feeding, plenty of water and spraying as necessary. Where both pest and plague is on the bush, mix insecticide with fungicide when spraying

Don't feed plants or lawns just before departing on your vacation. There's no need to bring on new and tender growth that might suffer from neglect.

You can still sow perennials such as Delphinium, Primrose and Columbine in flats for blooms next year.

All shrubs and vines can be planted from nursery containers now.

Don't overlook those in bloom, such as Roses, Fuchsias, Marguerites and others.

Local Residents On Navy Cruise

Thirty enlisted naval air reservists and 11 officers from the Bay Area, members of Fleet Aircraft Service Squadron 876, are currently cruising in the northwest from their base at the Naval Air Station in Seattle.

They departed from the home station July 6 and 7 in four flights of naval aircraft.

Safeway Reports Highest Net Profit in Its History

Reporting the highest mid-year sales and net profit in its 33-year history, Safeway Stores has confirmed that for the first 24 weeks of 1959 its profit after taxes was more than 2 per cent ahead of last year and sales were up nearly 6 per cent.

FOR THE first time, Safeway's sales exceeded one billion dollars during the first half-year, reaching $1,047,943,389, Quentin Reynolds, manager of Safeway's San Francisco division, has reported.

NET PROFIT for the same 24-week period, ended June 13, established a new high of $15,304,138.

These results compared with consolidated sales of $989,331,976 and net profit of $14,966,435 for the food company established its previous mid-year records.

Safeway's 1959 net profit at mid-year, after provisions for payment of preferred dividends and taxes on income, amounted to $1.20 per share of common stock, based on the average number of shares outstanding during the period.

Even though this average number of shares continued to increase from 12,183,482 during the first half of 1958 to 12,313,022 this year, Safeway's net earnings per share nevertheless exceeded 1958 when they amounted to $1.18 at mid-year.

"SUCH RESULTS, of course, are good news for our stockholders," Division Manager Reynolds said, "but we are particularly pleased that we have been able to parallel this financial growth with similar development of our facilities and employment opportunities. Thus far, in 1959, the company has opened 69 modern retail stores, eight of which are in the San Francisco division, and two large warehouse distribution centers.

Four more distribution centers will be completed or in the midst of construction by year-end by which time the number of new retail stores opened this year will have reached about 200, twenty of which will be in the San Francisco division.

THESE NEW warehouse centers and retail facilities represent replacements or additions to those which we have outgrown. At mid-year, our report is a constructive one of growth for Safeway."

There were 2,125 Safeway stores in operation at the close of the company's first 24 weeks of 1959 as compared to 2,050 a year ago.

THERE'LL BE FUN FOR ALL the kids at the Second Annual Broadway Fun Fair in the Broadway Shopping Center. Along with the circus, clowns and other attractions, the children will be given free elephant rides.

Free Popcorn, Elephant Rides Featured at Fair

The second annual Broadway Fun Fair with its elephants, clowns, free prizes and many other outstanding events will be here Friday, George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Assocaition, said.

"All of us in the center are not only presenting one of the most fun-packed events ever offered in the central county, but all participating stores are striving to give to the public true values on quality goods, Webster continued.

"The Fun Fair has long been planned and all of the members of the association intend to make this year's event an even greater success that last year," the chairman added.

Webster announced there would be free balloons given to all the children in addition to cotton candy and popcorn.

"The Fun Fair bargains start Thursday and the circus will be in town Friday, Friday night and Saturday," Webster concluded.

Sterling Celebrating 91st Anniversary All This Month

It was in 1868 when the first Sterling Furniture Company store opened its doors to the public. Since that time five Sterling stores have been opened and are celebrating the company's anniversary this month.

Sterling's Walnut Creek Store, in the Broadway Shopping Center, has been stocked for the anniversary celebration with fresh ideas in home decoration and work saving kitchen appliances, according to Sal Blasquez, manager.

"We have done everything in our power to present to our many friends patio groups designed to bring new enjoyment to the indoor-outdoor life of the central county's residents," Blasquez added.

In concluding, Blasquez invited residents to drop in and see the anniversary specials at Sterling Furniture.

Small Boat Laws Passed by State

Boats are fun, but there are certain responsibilities that go hand-in-hand with boat ownership.

For example several new laws have been passed pertaining to boat ownership and boat operation. You, if you are at all interested in small boats should be aware of these laws.

The details of these laws are included in this week's Sun Sports which is on your newsstand right now.

But better than going down and picking up a copy of the paper every week, why not become a Sun subscriber.

There are 11,685 families in the Central Contra Costa area who are Sun subscribers, why not join them.

Just call AT 4-4444; CL 4-4343 or YE 4-5000.

VEHICLE DECLINE

Motor vehicle registrations declined during 1958 in three states —Michigan, North Carolina, and West Virginia.

Kids Can Feed All the Animals At the Fun Fair

"Feed the elephants, watch the wild animals in their cages, see the clown and cash in on the free popcorn, cotton candy and many other thrilling events at the second annual Broadway Fun Fair."

So spoke George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association in announcing the gala event which gets under way Friday.

WEBSTER NOTED, however that special sales throughout the center are scheduled from Thursday on.

Corlo, the Clown, will be on hand with his magic tricks and his fancy balloons. And, by the way, balloons will be given to all the children during the Broadway Fun Fair.

Captain John Leahew, one of the outstanding animal trainers, will have Suzie-Q, a 30 year-old elephant who has been in show business for the past 24 years and Bonnie, the baby elephant who has carried 80,000 children since the first of the year.

Suzie-Q tips the scales at four tons while her eight year old friend weighs one and a quarter tons.

QUEEN AND PRINCE, two wild, and completely untrained lions, will be one of the center attractions during the Fun Fair, Webster noted.

The two youngsters, only three years old, both weigh in the neighborhood of 300 pounds.

And the very same monkeys who play a vital part in space research will be on hand for the children to enjoy.

Four EBMUD Execs Speak at Meeting

Four East Bay Municipal Utility District executives presented papers at the American Water Works Association national convention now in session in San Francisco. Louis J. Breuner, president of the EBMUD board of directors, reported today.

This is the seventy-ninth annual conference for the AWWA. It opened July 13 and will end today, the meeting being held at San Francisco's Civic Auditorium. More than 3000 delegates from water utilities and suppliers throughout the United States are registered for the five-day conference.

John W. McFarland, EBMUD's general manager, will present a paper and speak on "Regional Water Supply Systems — Developed by District Authority." It will be a review of two methods of regionalization as practiced by the Chicago Metropolitan System and by the East Bay Municipal District with emphasis on the advantages of both.

F. H. Eastman, secretary of the utility district will speak on, "Mechanics of Bond Election Campaigns," presenting an outline of the basic principles involved in planning, organizing and conducting a bond election campaign, based on the successful experience of EBMUD.

James W. "Bill" Trahern, manager of EBMUD's design engineering division will present a paper titled "East Bay's New Aqueduct." This will describe the new Third Mokelumne Aqueduct for bringing additional quantities of water from the Mokelumne River to the East Bay area. A contract for construction of 33 miles of this 87 inch diameter steel and concrete aqueduct has been awarded for almost 15 million dollars and installation will start in approximately 60 days.

J. P. Dieter, accountant and controller for the EBMUD will take part in the management workshop and present a paper titled, "Budgeting and Cost Accounting Systems at Work." It covers a discussion of the growing need for closer control of water utility costs and finances, together with a review of the methods of achieving control and delegating responsibility for it.

EBMUD President Louis J. Breuner stated, "We are pleased that our executives have been invited to take an important part in the variety of subjects which will be studied and discussed by the delegates to the 79th annual conference of the American Water Works Association.

"Thousands attended our Fun Fair last year and we expect many more this year. Come to and thrill the children and have some fun yourself," Webster conthe Broadway Shopping Center cluded.

Water Use Is At Peak July 9

The East Bay Municipal Utility District announced that an all time peak consumption was reached July 9 when 234,726,000 gallons of water were used by the district's 1,100,000 consumers.

This new record tops the previous high set on June 22 when 224,481,000 gallons were consumed.

Even with this peak consumption, it is gratifying to know that there will be no curtailment by EBMUD in the use of water.

Area Men on Training Tour At Sea Aboard Cockrell

Jerry Russon, a veteran of 20 years naval service, led his reserve crew to a 82 scout out of a possible grade of 100 during training at San Diego.

Chief Signalman Russon, who lives at 1912 Geary Road, Walnut Creek, is a member of the USS Alvin C. Cockrell reserve crew which is undergoing two weeks of operational readiness and anti-submarine training with the fleet training group.

AS A MEMBER of the reserve crew he drills one weekend each month aboard the actual ship he will man in the event of general mobilization.

He has his own bunk, locker with all necessary uniforms aboard at all times, and carries pre-cut orders assigning him to the Cockrell should the need for mobilization ever arise.

The reserve signalman made the 82 score in visual communication under the supervision of the training group.

This group consists of specially trained regular Navy officers and senior petty officers who evaluate the ships readiness in their specific wartime assignments.

VISUAL COMMUNICATIONS are blinker lights, hand flags and signal hoist flags.

Captain of the Cockrell reserve crew is Comander Henry Steinbach of 1067 Glen Road, Lafayette, a veteran destroyer sailor who received his commission in the Navy Reserve following his graduation from the University of California in 1941.

"Hank" Steinbach and his reserve crew have been undergoing all tests and evolutions that regular Navy ships undertake for grading during this training.

The Cockrell is the flag ship for Captain Jack Schweitzer, Commodore of the 12th Naval District Reserve DE Division, which includes the USS Naifeh, commanded by Commander James Grealish of Daly City.

THE COCKRELL is stationed at the East Bay Naval Reserve Training Center, Alameda, and the Naifeh at Treasure Island.

The Cockrell and the Naifeh are the first ships in the new selected reserve program on the west coast to attempt Fleet Training Group evaluation.

Bernard Goldstein of 10 Woodford Drive, Moraga, is one of the signalmen who took part in the visual communication test.

OTHER CONTRA Costa county men aboard the Cockrell are John Williams, 21 Mission Lane and David Rogers, 1833 Parkside Drive, both of Walnut Creek,

Oakland Light Opera New Show Under Way Friday

The Oakland Light Opera Association's staging of Strauss' beautiful "The Great Waltz" opens Friday night in Woodminster Amphitheater, Joaquin Miller Park. Curtain time for the Oakland Park Commission sponsored event is 8:30.

Moss Hart's libretto for this Viennese musical, produced and directed by John M. Falls, revolves around the relationship between the father-son composer team of Strauss, whose combined life-span covered nearly a century from 1804 to 1899. The colorful story relates the romantic tale of the elder Johann's jealousy of his son.

The legend of the two Strauss' rivalry is told against picturesque backgrounds of nineteenth century Vienna, and interwoven with it is the story of young Strauss' bitter-sweet attachment to a baker's daughter.

Everett Nygaard, a Woodminster favorite, will portray Strauss Sr. with Jim Duyn as the younger Strauss and Leona Gordon as Resi, his sweetheart.

Carole Bogard of Berkeley will be seen as the Russian Countess whose crafty plotting gives Johann Jr. the chance to prove in public that he has a genius of his own. The younger Strauss eventually wins out in the intense competition with his father, and is crowned Vienna's "Waltz King."

One of the major features of the show will occur when the younger Strauss' immortal "Blue Danube" is played by the Woodminster orchestra, conducted by Carl Kalash.

The Association's large supporting cast will include Edgar Iversen, John Bogard, Kathie Jackson, Joan Payne, Frank Falls, Roy Black, Ron Mitchell, Tom Barker, Byron Burleigh and Stephen Pierce. Geraldine Uhlig of the Raoul Pause corps de ballet will portray the prima ballerina Kathy Lanner.

Free parking is available for approximately 1000 cars adjacent to the theater.

Series tickets for the 1959 Woodminster Light Opera Series will remain on sale at Sherman Clay until the final night of "The Great Waltz" which plays July 17, 18, 24 and 25. The Woodminster box office opens at 7 p.m. on show nights. Prices start at $1 for general admission.

Cal Engineer Tests Set

The engineering examination for freshmen planning to enter the new program at the University of California, Davis, will start at 8 a.m. on Saturday, August 8.

If enough prospective engineering students living in southern California wish to take the examination, it will also be given on the Los Angeles campus, said Roy Bainer, assistant dean of the Colleges of Engineering and chairman of the Department of Agricultural Engineering at Davis.

Action by the university regents last month expanded the College of Engineering at Berkeley to include the Davis campus. Formal ratification of the decision is scheduled today.

Establishment of the College of Engineering, Berkeley - Davis, opens the Davis campus to entering students aiming toward all branches of engineering. For the present, specialties offered at Davis will consist of agricultural engineering, irrigation and drainage engineering, and food process (biochemical) engineering, Bainer said. For the other special fields engineering students will transfer in the junior year to Berkeley or Los Angeles.

The Davis examination will be given in room 203 of the Agricultural Engineering building on the campus. Bainer asked those planning to take the test to send word to him at Davis in advance, but said applications could be received up to the morning of the examination.

The examination at Los Angeles, he said, will be administered by Professor R. L. Perry, of the engineering staff on that campus, if enough students request an examination in the south. Students interested should write to Bainer at Davis. They will be notified of the time and place of the examination.

Tax Stamps Killed on Cigarettes

Cigarettes, smoking and chewing tobacco and snuff may be distributed legally without Federal internal revenue tax stamps affixed to packages, Joseph M. Cullen, district director of internal revenue service, said today.

Cullen said some cigars have had tax stamps affixed to packages, and this will be discontinued also.

He said the revenue stamps, which were generally used as a closure for most packages of tobacco products, may be replaced by closures of the manufacturer's own design, but that such closures may not simulate the tax stamps presently in use.

The manufacturer may, if he desires, have a statement on the closure, or elsewhere on the package, to indicate that federal stamps are no longer required.

A returns system, replacing stamps for payment of excise taxes on liquor products, also become effective.

The familiar strip stamp on liquor bottles, which is not a tax stamp, will continue to be uesd.
